

CONTENTS

List of maps.....	7
General introduction to the Atlas by Bernd Heine and W.J.G. Möhlig.....	9
Part I: Geographical and historical notes.....	11
First sub-section: Bantu languages by W.J.G. Möhlig.....	11
1. General considerations.....	13
2. Areal classification.....	13
2.1 Introduction.....	13
2.2 Survey of areal grouping.....	13
2.3 Coastal group.....	15
2.31 Ilwana (also called Malakote).....	15
2.32 Pokomo.....	15
2.33 Mijikenda (Nyika).....	17
2.34 Swahili.....	22
2.4 Taita group.....	22
2.41 Dabida.....	24
2.42 Sagala.....	24
2.43 Taveta.....	24
2.5 Central Kenya group.....	24
2.51 Kamba-Gikuyu.....	24
2.52 Meru-Tharaka.....	28
2.6 South Nyanza group.....	28
2.7 Luhya group.....	32
2.71 Bukusu-Wanga.....	32
2.72 Tiriki-Isukha.....	32
2.73 Samia-Nyala.....	32
2.74 Ragoli (Lugoli, Maragoli).....	32
3. Historical classification.....	36
3.1 Introduction remarks.....	36
3.11 Historical, typological, and genetic classifications.....	36
3.12 The linguistic basis of historical classifications.....	36
3.13 Bantuistics and historical linguistics.....	37
3.14 Introduction to the method underlying our historical classification.....	38

3.15 The basic patterns of language history.....	46
3.2 The details of the historical classification of the Bantu languages of Kenya.....	46
3.21 The linguistic basis.....	46
3.22 Diagrammatic representation.....	48
3.23 Commentary on the historical classification.....	48
3.24 Summary of classification.....	52
Second sub-section: Non-Bantu languages by Bernd Heine.....	53
4. General considerations on classification.....	53
4.1 The relevance of genetic classification.....	53
4.2 The genetic classification of the Nilotic languages.....	53
4.3 The genetic classification of the Cushitic languages.....	56
5. Geographical distribution and numbers of speakers.....	56
5.1 Nilotic languages.....	56
5.2 Cushitic languages.....	57
Part II: Language and Society, by Bernd Heine.....	59
1. Language and national communication.....	61
1.1 The knowledge of second languages.....	61
1.11 English.....	63
1.12 Swahili.....	64
1.13 Vernacular second languages.....	65
2. Some domains of language use.....	67
2.1 The Family.....	67
2.2 The speech community.....	68
2.3 The school.....	68
2.4 Linguistic minorities and language shift.....	69
2.41 Resistance to language shift.....	70
2.42 Language shift.....	71
2.43 Some problems.....	77
Part III: Selected bibliography.....	79
1. General section.....	81
2. Bantu section.....	87
3. Non-Bantu section.....	97
References.....	113
Index of Languages and dialects.....	117
General language and dialect map of Kenya	