

Activities for Developing Learning Strategies – Contents

0	Introduction to Developing Learning Strategies		Brief history, definitions of learning strategies, why teach LS, classification	7
1	Micro-strategies and tools		Introducing LS in class, pair and groupwork, mindset, homework, use of L1, equipment, learning journals	13
2	Goals and organisation	Levels of example activities	Getting started on your learning journey, organising your time and study methods	21
2a	Find your why	A2 – C1	Students share and discuss reasons for learning a language before choosing their own	22
2b	Big goals and small steps	B1 – C2	An activity to help students stay motivated and organise implementable actions in order to reach their goals	25
2c	My learning motto	A1 – C1	Students come up with a variety of learning mottos to motivate learning	29
2d	Celebrations	B1 – C1	Students write and share a list of rewards	32
2e	Describe your desk	A2+	Students describe their own work area, design their ideal learning environment and discuss how it will help them learn better	36
2f	How am I doing?	A1+	A quick quiz that students can come back to during the year to assess their learning process	38
3	Developing a learner mindset	Levels of example activities	Developing and maintaining good learner habits	41
3a	Mindset matters	B1 – C1	A quiz to assess and generate a discussion about learner mindset	42
3b	Out of your comfort zone	B1+	A pairwork activity leading to a discussion on learning happening outside our comfort zone	45
3c	Quick wins	A2 – C1	Learners develop a list of quick activities to remotivate themselves	48
3d	Gratitude battle	A1 – C1	Groups write an extensive list of things they’re grateful for, longest list wins	52
3e	The empathy quiz	A2 – C1	Students complete an empathy quiz which will lead to a discussion on what empathy is	55
3f	Amazing me!	A2 – C1	A getting to know each other activity	58

4	Overcoming challenges	Levels of example activities	Activities that will help students get around their language and learning difficulties	60
4a	Make your neighbour say	A1–C1	Students are given a list of words or language chunks that they must ‘make’ their partner say	61
4b	What are they saying?	B1–C1	Students look at images and cartoons and use non-verbal clues to complete the speech bubbles	65
4c	Dear learning agony aunt	A2+	Students write a letter explaining elements of language learning that they find difficult, then read their classmates’ suggestions	68
4d	Dub the dialogue	A2+	Students create a dialogue to dub a silent video clip	70
5	Strategies for skills	Levels of example activities	Activities that develop strategies to improve reading, writing, listening and speaking skills	72
5a	How to listen	A1–C2	Students produce a checklist for listening comprehension	73
5b	A writing sprint	A1–C1	Students are given a set time to write as much as they can	76
5c	Predictions	A1–C1	Students use the title or topic of a text to predict vocabulary and themes	78
5d	Keep them talking	A2–C1	Students ask questions to keep their partner talking as long as possible	80
5e	Write the questions	A1+	Students use a reading text to predict the comprehension questions	83
5f	From questions to text	A2–C1	Students write a text based on comprehension questions provided	86
5g	Line out	A1–C1	Students ask and answer a series of questions to a partner, then move on to talk to the next one about the same subject	90
6	Strategies for grammar and vocabulary	Levels of example activities	Developing strategies to help students learn vocabulary and grammar	92
6a	Vocabulary warm ups	A1+	A mixture of ways to learn and revise vocabulary	93
6b	Tense flow charts	A2+	Students create flow charts to help them produce grammatically correct phrases	96
6c	The Dunlosky List	A2+	Students guess and learn which study methods are the most effective	99

				Page
7	6d	The Feynman technique	A2+	Students explain a recently introduced item in a simple way, as if to a young child	102
	6e	Top tip tennis	A2–C1	Pairs take it in turns sharing ideas on ways to learn either vocabulary or grammatical functions	106
		Revision and exam preparation	Levels of example activities	Helping students develop strong revision habits and techniques to pass tests	109
	7a	Where's the clue?	A1+	Students find the key words and clues in gap fill	110
	7b	Word classification table	B1+	Students increase their vocabulary by converting words from verbs to adjectives, nouns, etc.	113
	7c	Write the test	A1+	Students write a test for the unit just studied, and then swap and complete the tests written by their classmates	116
	7d	Teacher for the day	B1+	Students take it in turns to teach each other	119
	7e	My checklist	A2–C1	Students create a checklist for rereading and self-correcting their written work	122
References					125