

Contents

|                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Page |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| List of Contributors .....                                                                                                                                                                       | IV   |
| Preface .....                                                                                                                                                                                    | VII  |
| SATTLER, R.: A dynamic multidimensional approach to floral morphology .....                                                                                                                      | 1    |
| ERBAR, C.: Early developmental patterns in flowers and their value for systematics ..                                                                                                            | 7    |
| UHL, N. W.: Floral organogenesis in palms .....                                                                                                                                                  | 25   |
| KIRCHOFF, B. K.: Floral ontogeny and evolution in the ginger group of the Zingiberales .....                                                                                                     | 45   |
| LEINS, P. & SCHWITALLA, S.: Placentation in Cactaceae .....                                                                                                                                      | 57   |
| TUCKER, S. C.: Loss versus suppression of floral organs .....                                                                                                                                    | 69   |
| JUNCOSA, A. M.: Floral development and character evolution in Rhizophoraceae ...                                                                                                                 | 83   |
| HUFFORD, L. D.: The evolution of floral morphological diversity in Eucnide (Loasaceae): The implications of modes and timing of ontogenetic changes on phylogenetic diversification ..... | 103  |
| GERRATH, J. M. & POSLUSZNY, U.: Comparative floral development in some members of the Vitaceae .....                                                                                             | 121  |
| MEDAN, D.: Gynoecium ontogenesis in the Rhamnaceae – A comparative study ...                                                                                                                     | 133  |
| HEEL, W. A. VAN: On the ascidiform development of carpels .....                                                                                                                                  | 143  |
| KAMPNY, C. M. & CANNE-HILLIKER, J. M.: Aspects of floral development in Scrophulariaceae – Striking early differences in three tribes .....                                                      | 147  |
| KRÜGER, H. & ROBERTSE, P. J.: Floral ontogeny of Securidaca longepedunculata Fresen. (Polygalaceae), including inflorescence morphology .....                                             | 159  |
| DIGGLE, P. K.: Sex expression in Solanum birtum : A summary .....                                                                                                                         | 169  |
| RAMIREZ-DOMÉNÉCH, J. & TUCKER, S. C.: Patterns of organ development in mimosoid legume flowers .....                                                                                             | 171  |
| NISHINO, E.: Early floral organogenesis in Tripetaleia (Ericaceae) .....                                                                                                                  | 181  |
| BROWN, G. K. & GILMARTIN, A. J.: Comparative ontogeny of bromeliaceous stigmas .....                                                                                                             | 191  |
| STEVENSON, D. WM.: Strobilar ontogeny in the Cycadales .....                                                                                                                                     | 205  |
| JENNY, M.: Different gynoecium types in Sterculiaceae: Ontogeny and functional aspects .....                                                                                                     | 225  |
| Genera Index .....                                                                                                                                                                               | 237  |