

Contents

1	The Influence of Culture on Organizational Success	1
1.1	Culture Eats Strategy for Breakfast	2
1.1.1	Culture Change—Reasons for Changes in Organizational Culture	4
1.1.2	Hard Facts—The Influence of Culture on the Performance of Organizations	6
1.2	How Culture Has Become a Recognized Influencing Factor	12
1.2.1	History—First Approaches in the 20th Century	12
1.2.2	Behavioral Economics, Psychology and Neuroscience—Empirical Findings	18
1.2.3	Changes in the Spirit of the Times—Demographic and Ecological Trends, New Work, Agile Work and Self-organization	24
1.3	Summary	31
	References	32
2	Basics for the Practical Support of Change	37
2.1	The 4-phase Model of Culture Change	39
2.1.1	Our Approach—Align, Plan, Implement, and Sustain	39
2.1.2	The Basics—Emotional Phases of Change	41
2.2	Four Determinants of Change—The AC Model	43
2.3	Five Design Principles for Successful Change	49
2.3.1	What and How Principle—Designing Change in an Integrative Way	50
2.3.2	The Why Principle—Making the Change Meaningful for the Individual	53
2.3.3	The Penguin Principle—Constructive and Appreciative Orientation to Strengths	60
2.3.4	The Ikea Principle—Designing the Program in a Participatory Way	63
2.3.5	The Mobile Principle—Planning and Implementing Changes Systemically	66
2.4	Summary	71
	References	72
3	Phase 1: Align	77
3.1	Conduct Action Analysis	79
3.1.1	Data Analysis—Using the Existing Fact Base	80
3.1.2	Surveys—Involve Many People by Questionnaire	80
3.1.3	Focus Interviews—Interviewing Individuals	83
3.1.4	Focus Groups—Involving Small Groups	90
3.2	Developing a Stakeholder Analysis	92
3.2.1	Stakeholder Analysis—Identifying Those Affected	92
3.2.2	“From-To”—Describing Desired Changes	95
3.3	Aligning the Top Team for Change	99
3.3.1	Selection—Putting Together the Right Top Team	99
3.3.2	Architecture—Defining the Overall Process	99
3.3.3	Kick-off Meeting—Starting the Top Team Process	100
3.4	Summary	105
	References	106

4	Phase 2: Plan	107
4.1	Developing Interventions—Using the AC Model	109
4.1.1	Procedure—The Steps to Developing Relevant Interventions	110
4.1.2	Examples—Interventions in the Four Determinants of the AC Model	114
4.2	Designing the Change Story	118
4.2.1	Structure—The Chapters of the Change Story	119
4.2.2	The Style—Filling the Change Story with Emotion	123
4.2.3	Development—The Steps to the Change Story	124
4.3	Building a Change Agent Network	126
4.3.1	Change Agents—Three Different Forms	126
4.3.2	Number of Change Agents—How to Achieve Critical Mass	131
4.3.3	Selection and Introduction of Change Agents—How the Network Is Created	133
4.4	Planning, Setting Up, and Controlling the Project	134
4.4.1	Project Planning—What Happens Beforehand	135
4.4.2	Project Bodies—Which Committees Steer the Project	137
4.4.3	Project Meetings—How to Work Operationally	138
4.5	Summary	142
	References	142
5	Phase 3: Implement	145
5.1	Introducing Projects Systematically	146
5.1.1	Piggyback Technique—Integrating Into Existing Initiatives	147
5.1.2	Prototyping—Creating Success Stories	149
5.1.3	Symbolic Actions—Systematically Making the Change Tangible	150
5.2	Mass Communication Launch	156
5.2.1	Communication Tools—Conveying Messages to the Right Target Group	158
5.2.2	Communication Planning—Managing Communication Systematically	164
5.3	Phase 3: Implementation	166
5.3.1	Process Design—How Workshop Architecture Activates Change	166
5.3.2	Method Selection—How to Change Culture in Workshops	170
5.4	Summary	176
	References	176
6	Phase 4: Sustain	179
6.1	Anchoring in the Line Organization	181
6.2	Designing the End of the Project	183
6.2.1	Timing—Deciding When to End the Project	183
6.2.2	Resolution—Project Bodies and Their Members After the Project	185
6.2.3	Conclusion—Final Meeting, Feedback, and “Celebrating Successes”	186
6.3	Evaluating and Documenting the Project	188
6.3.1	Project Evaluation—Derivation of Learning Experiences	188
6.3.2	Project Documentation—Establishing Knowledge Management	192
6.4	Ensuring Long-term Change	195
6.5	Summary	197
	References	198

7	The Relevance of the Person—Mastering Change Through Emotional Intelligence	199
7.1	Strengthening Emotional Intelligence (EQ)	200
7.1.1	Emotional Intelligence (EQ)—What Is Meant by It	203
7.1.2	Resilience—Strengthening One’s Own Resilience Through EQ	204
7.1.3	Leadership—Inspiring Other People Through EQ	205
7.2	Training One’s Own Emotional Intelligence—Mindfulness, Reactive-Creative and Willpower in Self-coaching	207
7.2.1	Mindfulness—Focusing on Oneself and Others	207
7.2.2	Two States—Being Reactive and Creative	208
7.2.3	Self-coaching—Creating Behavioral Change Sustainably	215
7.3	Summary	218
	References	219
8	Epilogue: Changing Culture	223
	Supplementary Information
	References	228