

Table of contents

|                                                                                             |      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Acknowledgements .....                                                                      | v    |
| List of illustrations .....                                                                 | ix   |
| Abbreviations .....                                                                         | xi   |
| Bibliographical abbreviations .....                                                         | xi   |
| Symbols and other abbreviations .....                                                       | xiii |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                       | 1    |
| 1.1 Aims and questions .....                                                                | 1    |
| 1.2 Previous research .....                                                                 | 1    |
| 1.3 Material and method .....                                                               | 2    |
| 1.4 Theory .....                                                                            | 7    |
| 1.5 Historical background .....                                                             | 9    |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 2. The evidence: the individual level and the biographic perspective.....                   | 13   |
| 2.1 Identified Africans .....                                                               | 13   |
| 2.1.1 People with certain or likely African names .....                                     | 13   |
| 2.1.2 People identified as Africans via ethnonyms .....                                     | 63   |
| 2.1.3 People identified as Africans via family relations .....                              | 68   |
| 2.2 Possible Africans.....                                                                  | 81   |
| 2.2.1 People with possibly African names .....                                              | 81   |
| 2.2.2 People with hybrid or adopted African names .....                                     | 95   |
| 2.3 Anonymous Africans .....                                                                | 99   |
| 2.3.1 Anonymous Africans in Neo- and Late-Babylonian royal inscriptions and chronicles..... | 99   |
| 2.3.2 Anonymous Africans in Neo- and Late-Babylonian documents .....                        | 102  |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 3. The evidence: the collective level and the demographic perspective.....                  | 111  |
| 3.1 Demographics and the African group: identities and properties .....                     | 111  |
| 3.1.1 The ethnic composition of the African group .....                                     | 111  |
| 3.1.2 The sex/gender composition of the African group .....                                 | 112  |
| 3.1.3 The age composition of the African group .....                                        | 113  |
| 3.1.4 The class composition of the African group .....                                      | 114  |
| 3.2 Demographics and the African group: settings and circumstances.....                     | 115  |
| 3.2.1 The temporal distribution of the African group .....                                  | 116  |
| 3.2.2 The spatial distribution of the African group .....                                   | 117  |
| 3.2.3 The backgrounds to the presence of the African group .....                            | 119  |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 4. Conclusion.....                                                                          | 121  |
| 4.1 Africans in Chaldean and Achaemenid Babylonia: integration and assimilation .....       | 121  |
| 4.2 Adaptation and co-optation: Babylonian officials of African descent .....               | 126  |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 5. Bibliography .....                                                                       | 129  |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 6. Illustrations.....                                                                       | 147  |
|                                                                                         |      |
| 7. Appendices and indices .....                                                             | 155  |
| 7.1 Appendices .....                                                                        | 155  |
| 7.1.1 Identified Africans .....                                                             | 155  |

7.1.2 Possible Africans.....161

7.1.3 Anonymous Africans .....163

7.2 Indices .....163

7.2.1 Deities .....163

7.2.2 People.....164

7.2.3 Places .....168

7.2.4 Texts.....169

7.2.5 Egyptian words .....172