

Step	Contents	Page
1	What are you working on? Simple present: We work in a team. Present progressive: We're working on a new project. Stative verbs: It sounds interesting.	5
	Everyday grammar 10      Grammar check 11      Homestudy 12
2	What was he doing? Simple past: I had a busy weekend. Past progressive: I was walking in the park when I saw a young man.	13
	Everyday grammar 18      Grammar check 19      Homestudy 20
3	What are your plans? going to : I'm going to meet some friends. Present progressive (future): We're meeting at 6 pm. Simple future: In six weeks, I'll be in Mali. Future progressive: In six weeks, I'll be working in Mali.	21
	Everyday grammar 26      Grammar check 27      Homestudy 28
4	Would you believe it? First conditional: If you break a mirror, you'll have seven years bad luck. Second conditional: I wouldn't stay in that hotel if I believed in ghosts.	29
	Everyday grammar 34      Grammar check 35      Homestudy 36
1-4	Grammar light 37      Fun check 38      Check out 40
5	Have you done that yet? Present perfect & simple past: I've had a lot of jobs. I got my first job when I was sixteen. Present perfect + ever &amp; never, yet &amp; already, just : I've just finished the report, but I haven't sent it yet.	41
	Everyday grammar 46      Grammar check 47      Homestudy 48
6	How long has it been? Present perfect progressive + all (day), for &amp; since : She's been looking at those shirts all morning / for fifteen minutes / since 9 o'clock. Present perfect simple + for &amp; since : We've been here for fifteen minutes / since 9 o'clock.	49
	Everyday grammar 54      Grammar check 55      Homestudy 56
7	What had happened before? Past perfect: They had already met two years before. Reported speech: He said he couldn't sleep.	57
	Everyday grammar 62      Grammar check 63      Homestudy 64
8	What would you have done? Past modals – should have done, could have done, would have done : I should have left the party earlier, then I could have gone home by bus. Third conditional: If I'd left the party earlier, I wouldn't have missed the last bus.	65
	Everyday grammar 70      Grammar check 71      Homestudy 72
5-8	Grammar light 73      Fun check 74      Check out 76
	Grammar 77      Keys 83      Audio texts 85      A-Z Word list 88	