

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments .....	V
-----------------------	---

Chapter 1: A Reintroduction to the Relationship Between P and Non-P .....	1
--	---

A. On the Distinctiveness of P and Non-P .....	1
B. On the Chronological Relationship Between P and Non-P .....	8
C. On the Compositional Relationship Between P and Non-P .....	18
Excursus 1: On the Komposition Model .....	34
D. On the Ideological Relationship Between P and Non-P .....	37
E. Toward a Reconceptualized Model of Mutually Influenced Updating .....	47

Chapter 2: Exodus 4:14–16 .....	55
---------------------------------	----

A. An Introduction to the Text and Its Challenges .....	55
B. Support for Its Supplementary Nature within the Non-Priestly Corpus .....	62
1. Differentiating Exodus 4:10–12 from Exodus 4:1–9 as Part of the Core Narrative .....	63
2. Differentiating Exodus 4:14–16 from Exodus 4:10–12 as a Supplementary Layer .....	66
C. Support for Its Influence from the Priestly Corpus .....	71
D. Support for Its Inclusion within a Still Separate Non-Priestly Corpus .....	77
1. Determining the Purpose of Exodus 6:30–7:2 through Its Relationship with Exodus 4:10–12 .....	77
2. Determining the Purpose of Exodus 4:14–16 through Its Relationship with Exodus 6:30–7:2 .....	82

Excursus 2: On the Implications of this Study for the Ascription of Other Parts of Exodus 4 .....	90
 Chapter 3: Exodus 3:15 .....	95
A. An Introduction to the Text and Its Challenges .....	95
B. Support for Its Supplementary Nature within the Non-Priestly Corpus ....	101
C. Support for Its Influence from the Priestly Corpus .....	108
1. Understanding Exodus 3:15 as an Internal Development within Its Own Non-Priestly Context .....	109
2. Understanding Exodus 3:15 as a Development Motivated by the Priestly Account .....	115
D. Support for Its Inclusion within a Still Separate Non-Priestly Corpus .....	121
Excursus 3: On Exodus 3:13 as a Possible Extension of the Non-Priestly Update .....	126
 Chapter 4: Genesis 17:15–21 .....	139
A. An Introduction to the Text and Its Challenges .....	139
Excursus 4: On Religious Assumptions and their Implications (a Disclaimer) .....	146
B. Support for Its Supplementary Nature within the Priestly Corpus .....	148
1. Attempting to Reconcile the Contradiction Synchronically .....	148
a) Rereading Genesis 17:15–21 to Support Ishmael's Consistent Inclusion in the Covenant .....	149
b) Rereading Genesis 17:23–27 to Support Ishmael's Consistent Exclusion from the Covenant .....	159
Excursus 5: On the Late Addition of Genesis 17:12b–13a, 23*, 27... 161
2. Attempting to Explain the Contradiction Diachronically .....	163
a) Questioning the Unoriginality of Genesis 17:23–27 due to Its Links with Genesis 17:9–14 .....	164
Excursus 6: On the Structural Similarities Between the Two Priestly Covenants .....	172
b) Questioning the Originality of Genesis 17:15–21 due to Its Links with Genesis 17:1–8 .....	176

Excursus 7: On the Implications for Priestly Verse Assignments in Genesis 21:1–8* .....	185
C. Support for Its Influence from the Non-Priestly Corpus .....	187
1. Evidence Supporting the Influence of Non-P's Ishmael Material .....	188
2. Evidence Supporting the Influence of Non-P's Isaac Material .....	193
Excursus 8: On the Theological Differences Between P and Non-P in these Passages .....	204
D. Support for Its Inclusion within a Still Separate Priestly Corpus .....	209
 Chapter 5: Genesis 26:34–35; 27:46 .....	217
A. An Introduction to the Text and Its Challenges .....	217
Excursus 9: On the Appeal to the Larger Jacob Cycle in Determining the Relationship Between P and Non-P .....	221
B. Support for Its Supplementary Nature within the Priestly Corpus .....	225
C. Support for Its Influence from the Non-Priestly Corpus .....	230
1. Rebekah's Enhanced Role .....	231
2. Esau's Diminished Image .....	235
Excursus 10: On Esau's Dismissal in the Core Priestly Narrative .....	239
D. Support for Its Inclusion within a Still Separate Priestly Corpus .....	242
 Chapter 6: Genesis 35:10 .....	251
A. An Introduction to the Text and Its Challenges .....	251
B. Support for Its Supplementary Nature within the Priestly Corpus .....	254
C. Support for Its Influence from the Non-Priestly Corpus .....	262
Excursus 11: On the Originality of Jacob's Name Change in the Non-Priestly Account .....	267
D. Support for Its Inclusion within a Still Separate Priestly Corpus .....	272

Chapter 7: Conclusions and Implications.....	279
A. On Scholarly Models of the P/Non-P Relationship.....	280
B. On Conceptions of the Combination of P and Non-P .....	282
C. On Pre-Merger Scribal Activity in Persian Period Yehud.....	290
 Bibliography.....	 295
Citation Index.....	307
Author Index .....	323
Subject Index.....	325