Preface	IX

I. Perspectives of Prostate Research

Krieg, M., Tunn, S. (Bochum): Pathobiological aspects of the malignant and benign growth of the human prostate	3

II. Molecular Biology of the Prostate

Brinkmann, A. O., Faber, P. W., Kuiper, G. G. J. M., Klaassen, P., Bolt, J., de Boer, W., Smit, A., van Rooij, H. C. J., van der Korput, J. A. G. M., Geurts van Kessel, A., Voorhorst, M. M., Mulder, E., Trapman, J. (Rotterdam): The androgen receptor: Domain structure and function	15
Schalken, J. A. (Nijmegen): Differential (onco-)gene expression in prostatic cancer	28
Klein, H., Bressel, M., Kastendieck, H., Voigt, K. D. (Hamburg): Steroid utilization of hormonally untreated prostatic carcinomas: Metabolism of adrenal-derived androgen precursors and concentration of active steroids	36

III. Cell Biology of Prostatic Tumors

Isaacs, J. T. (Baltimore): Therapeutic implications of the tumor biology of prostatic cancer	45
Altmannsberger, M., Osborn, M. (Giessen): Intermediate filaments: Distribution in normal tissue, structure, and intermediate filament typing in tumors	59
Wernert, N., Dhom, G. (Homburg/Saar): Immunohistochemistry of the prostate and diverse prostate carcinomas	69
Enderle-Schmitt, U., Erkel, J., Goebel, H. W., Heils, A., Rausch, U., Seitz, J., Aumüller, G. (Marburg): Specific proteins of the prostate	82

V

IV. Endocrinology of the Prostate: Normal and Pathological

Schweikert, H.-U., Tunn, U. W. (Bonn): The endocrine aspects of benign prostatic hyperplasia	99
Lehmann, R. R., Berges, R., Richter, K.-D., Senge, Th. (Münster): Effect of the aromatase inhibitor methylandrostadienedione-1 on human BPH tissue after xenotransplantation into thymusaplastic nude mice: A light and an electron microscopic study	104
Schulze, H., Barrack, E. R. (Baltimore): Immunocytochemical localization of estrogen receptors in canine prostates	120
Tunn, S., Krieg, M. (Bochum): Androgen metabolism in human prostate: Influence of aging	134

V. Clinical Aspects

Tunn, U. W., Schweikert, H. U., Neumann, F. (Offenbach): Mechanism of androgen suppression in the management of prostatic cancer	145
Sandow, J., von Rechenberg, W., Seidel, H., Keil, M. (Frankfurt): Experimental studies on tissue tolerance and on biodegradation of polylactide/glycolide-buserelin implants in rats	157
Craff, J. (Herne): Chemotherapy for metastatic carcinoma of the prostate	167
