

Contents

---

"It's how you flip it!" – Editorial Notes
Linus Eusterbrock, Chris Kattenbeck, and Oliver Kautny .....	9
 Music Education and Hip-Hop
Who Do We Think We Are?
Adam J. Kruse .....	17
 Hip-Hop and Music Education
Challenges and Current Issues
Chris Kattenbeck and Oliver Kautny .....	23
 "Music can really, really raise you" (Pete Rock)
Hip-Hop as a (Creative) Space for Education
Kurt Tallert aka Retrogott .....	51
 "Urgency. [...] It's so much more than just interest or passion!"
On Learning and Teaching in Hip-Hop
Samy Deluxe in conversation with Oliver Kautny .....	71
 Institutionalizing Beatmaking
Challenges and Opportunities for Music Education
Chris Kattenbeck .....	81
 Invisible Skillz. Thoughts on Hip-Hop as an Artistic, Creative Culture
A Response to Kattenbeck
Friederike Frost .....	103

The Archipelago as a Metaphor for the Creation of Collective Knowledge in Breaking
Michael Rappe and Christine Stöger .....	107
Breaking and the Island Life
A Practitioner/Activist Response to Rappe and Stöger
Saman Hamdi .....	133
Analyzing Flow and Deconstructing Childhood
How Hip-Hop-Based Music Education Can Benefit from Music Theory and Sociology of Childhood
Oliver Kautny .....	137
Flow in the Music Classroom
A Response to Kautny
Meike Rudolph .....	159
Examining the Ideological Tension and Institutional Constraint of Implementing Hip-Hop-Based Music Education within the Formal Academic Space
Jabari M. Evans .....	163
The Representation of Gangsta Rap in Music Education Textbooks
Charlotte Furtwängler .....	179
Gangsta Rap in Everyday School Life
A Response to Furtwängler
Manu Vogel .....	199
Characteristics of a Hip-Hop Pedagogy Based in Community Music Practices
A Nordic Bildung Perspective
Johan Söderman .....	203
What Germany's Educational System Can Learn from Sweden's Engagement with Hip-Hop Culture
A Response to Söderman
Michael Kröger .....	221

Building Hip-Hop Music Educators

Personal Reflections on Rap Songwriting in the Classroom

Ethan Hein and Toni Blackman ..... 223

Hip-Hop Doesn't Need School, School needs Hip-Hop

A Response to Hein and Blackman

Michael Kröger ..... 243

Hip-Hop Is More than Music

A Response to Hein and Blackman

Puya Bagheri in conversation with Linus Eusterbrock ..... 247

Making Dope Shit

How Does One Learn (about) Flow? And (How) Can It Be Done in a Formalized Education Setting?

Kjell Andreas Oddekalv ..... 251

Hip-Hop and Intersectional Music Education:

Learning from Hip-Hop Feminisms

Shanti Suki Osman ..... 271

Eco Hip-Hop Education

Rap Music, Environmental Justice, and Climate Change in Music Education

Linus Eusterbrock ..... 293

Biographical Notes ..... 311