

Contents

Acknowledgments	v
Introduction	vii
PART I: FROM ARTIST TO DICTATOR	1
Chapter 1: Adolf Hitler’s Humble Beginnings	3
Chapter 2: Vienna and the Roots of Hitler’s Antisemitism	10
Chapter 3: The Great War	22
Chapter 4: The Failure of Democracy	28
Chapter 5: From Soldier to Führer	36
Chapter 6: Hitler’s Swift Rise to Power	49
Chapter 7: Germany’s Economic Recovery	57
PART II: THE OVERWHELMING POWER OF PROPAGANDA	69
Chapter 8: Hitler and the Arts	71
Chapter 9: Antisemitic Propaganda	102
Chapter 10: The German “People’s Community”	130
Chapter 11: Racial Hygiene for the Master Race	143
Chapter 12: Hitler: Actor and Orator	152
Chapter 13: Hitler in “His” Mountains	159
Chapter 14: Mass Events and the Art of Propaganda	164

Chapter 15: Third Reich Cinema	173
Chapter 16: Volk ohne Raum and Other Justifications for War	182
Chapter 17: One Crown for Two Empires	191
PART III: STATE OF TERROR	203
Chapter 18: Policing the Reich	205
Chapter 19: Persecution	216
Chapter 20: Extermination	232
Chapter 21: Resisting the Reich	246
PART IV: ADDITIONAL PERSPECTIVES	256
Chapter 22: Hitler's Secret Book	259
Chapter 23: Did Occultism Play a Role in the Third Reich?	280
Chapter 24: Religion in the Reich	288
Chapter 25: The Third Reich: A New Rome?	305
Chapter 26: Women in the Reich	311
Chapter 27: The Hidden Face of Eva Braun	328
PART V: DEALING WITH COLLECTIVE GUILT	337
Chapter 28: How Nazified Were the Germans during the Third Reich?	339
Chapter 29: Neo-Nazis in Germany Today?	359
Index	380
About the Author	395