

Acknowledgements	ix
Part I: Feyerabend and the Pedagogy of Irritation: An Introduction	1
KARSTEN KENKLIES AND SEBASTIAN ENGELMANN
Part II: Irritations: Paul Feyerabend in Education Studies	11
Theoretical Bystander? Paul Feyerabend's Reception in Publications on Education	13
BERNHARD HEMETSBERGER
Limitations of Abundance? The Role of Concepts in Educational Discourse	27
KARSTEN KENKLIES
Part III: Inclusions: Feyerabend and Science Pedagogy	49
Feyerabend, the Ally of Alternative Approaches to Science and Champion of Inclusive Science Education	51
JANE ESSEX
Rethinking Science Education: Fostering Feyerabend's View of Pluralism and Proficiency	67
DEIVIDE GARCIA DA SILVA OLIVEIRA
The Place of Scientific Errors in Feyerabend's Pluralism for Educational Purposes	107
LÍLIA FERREIRA SOUZA QUEIROZ AND DEIVIDE GARCIA DA SILVA OLIVEIRA

Part IV: Performances: Feyerabend and Pedagogical Practice	121
The Tyranny of Truth and the Preservation of Human Happiness (à la Bertolt Brecht and Paul Feyerabend)	123
KATJA FRIMBERGER
Feyerabend on Education, Professionalisation, and Intellectual Pollution	145
JAMIE SHAW
The Staged Cage? Education, Reality, and ‘Illusions’ of Freedom: A Dialogue	163
NICOLA ROBERTSON, VIJAYITA PRAJAPATI, AND YUELING CHEN
Notes on Contributors	181