

Contents

Chapter 1: The Problem of New Testament Pseudonymity	1
1.1 Defining the Problem	1
1.2 Attempts at Resolving the Problem	4
1.3 Toward a New Contribution	12
Chapter 2: Authorship, Revelation and Canon in the Prophetic Tradition	17
2.1 Prophetic Revelation and the Growth of the Prophetic Tradition	17
2.1.1 The Nature of OT Prophecy	17
2.1.2 The Growth of the Prophetic Tradition	22
2.2 The Isaiah Tradition	26
2.2.1 Isaiah of Jerusalem and First Isaiah (1–39)	27
2.2.2 Second Isaiah (40–55)	31
2.2.3 Third Isaiah (56–66)	37
2.3 Summary	42
Chapter 3: Authorship, Revelation and Canon in the Wisdom Tradition	44
3.1 The Nature of Jewish Wisdom	44
3.2 King Solomon and the Wisdom Tradition	48
3.3 Authorship and Authority in the Solomonic Wisdom Corpus	51
3.3.1 Proverbs	51
3.3.2 Canticles	53
3.3.3 Qoheleth	55
3.3.4 The Wisdom of Solomon	62
3.3.5 The Psalms of Solomon	67
3.3.6 Excursus: Other Solomonic Literature	69
3.4 Summary	71
Chapter 4: Authorship, Revelation and Canon in the Apocalyptic Tradition	73
4.1 The Nature of Apocalyptic	73
4.2 The Daniel Tradition	85
4.2.1 The Figure of Daniel	85
4.2.2 The Court Tales of Daniel (1–6)	86
4.2.3 The Apocalypse of Daniel (7–12)	88
4.2.4 Attribution in Daniel	91

4.3	The Enoch Tradition	91
4.3.1	The Figure of Enoch	92
4.3.2	The Astronomical Book (1 Enoch 72–82)	93
4.3.3	The Book of Watchers (1 Enoch 1–36)	94
4.3.4	The Book of Dreams (1 Enoch 83–90)	96
4.3.5	The Epistle of Enoch (1 Enoch 91–105)	96
4.3.6	The Book of Parables (1 Enoch 37–71)	98
4.3.7	Attribution in 1 Enoch	99
4.4	Summary	101
Chapter 5: Pseudonymity in the New Testament		103
5.1	Summary of Jewish Background Studies	103
5.2	The Nature of NT Revelation and the Jesus Tradition	106
5.3	The Pauline Tradition	116
5.3.1	The Pastorals	118
5.3.1.1	The Problem of the Pastorals	118
5.3.1.2	Paul and His Followers in the Pastorals	122
5.3.1.3	Vergegenwärtigung and Pauline Tradition in the Pastorals	130
5.3.1.4	Canon and the Literary Shape of the Pastorals	133
5.3.2	Ephesians	139
5.3.2.1	The Problem of Ephesians	139
5.3.2.2	The Occasion and Purpose of Ephesians	142
5.3.2.3	The Role of Paul in Ephesians	148
5.3.2.4	Tradition and Literary Attribution in Ephesians	153
5.3.3	Excursus: Later Pauline Tradition	157
5.3.4	The Pauline Tradition: Summary	160
5.4	The Petrine Tradition	161
5.4.1	1 Peter	163
5.4.1.1	The Problem of 1 Peter	163
5.4.1.2	The Occasion and Purpose of 1 Peter	167
5.4.1.3	Petrine Tradition in 1 Peter	172
5.4.1.4	Vergegenwärtigung and the Authorship of 1 Peter	178
5.4.2	2 Peter	179
5.4.2.1	The Problem of 2 Peter	179
5.4.2.2	The Occasion and Purpose of 2 Peter	181
5.4.2.3	Petrine Tradition in 2 Peter	183
5.4.3	Excursus: Later Petrine Tradition	186
5.4.4	The Petrine Tradition: Summary	189
5.5	Tradition and Attribution in the NT: Summary	190
Chapter 6: Pseudonymity and Canon		194
6.1	The Historical Development of Early Christian Pseudepigrapha	194
6.1.1	Literary Origins	194

6.1.2	Means of Propagation	197
6.1.3	“Canon-Consciousness” and the Crystallization of Tradition .	199
6.2	Authorship and Canon	203
6.2.1	Ancient Criteria for Canonicity	203
6.2.2	Modern Criteria for Canonicity	208
6.3	Summary	215
6.4	Addendum: Vergegenwärtigung and the Closure of the Canon	216
A Selected Bibliography		219
Index of Passages.		229
Index of Authors.		251
Index of Subjects		256