

Contents

Introduction

Part I

The Foundations of Prevention and Intervention in Law and Criminal Justice Policy

1.	Constitutional Observations on the Subject of Prevention Dieter Grimm	13
2.	The Prevention State: The Security of the Objects of Legal Protection versus Legal Security Erhard Denninger	29
3.	Prevention as a Problematical Objective in the Criminal Justice System Peter-Alexis Albrecht	47
4.	Criminal Justice Policy without Legitimation Otto Backes	73

Part II

The Evaluation of Institutional Approaches to Crime Prevention

5.	Informal Justice: Mediation between Offenders and Victims Burt Galaway	103
6.	Mediation-Experiment in Finland Matti Grönfors	117
7.	Informal Justice and Conflict Solution – A Research Report on New Interventive Strategies of Administrative Social Work in the Field of Juvenile Delinquency Franz Bettmer / Heinz Messmer / Hans-Uwe Otto	129
8.	Police and Prevention – A Research Report on Cooperation in the Criminal Justice System Ursula Herbort / Dorothea Rzepka / Silvia Voss	145
9.	Delinquent Behavior in Adolescence: Potential and Constraints of Preventive Strategies in School Settings Uwe Engel / Klaus Hurrelmann	167
10.	School Delinquency Prevention as Management of Rabble Kenneth Polk	185
11.	Prevention as a Strategy of Normalizing. An Analytical Approach on Restructuring the Integration Paradigm in Institutional Social Work Karin Böllert / Hans-Uwe Otto	199

Part III

Inquiry into the Ethical Aspects of Prevention

12.	Problems of Access to Data and of the Right to Privacy in Criminological Research Karl F. Schumann	217
13.	Data Protection and Prevention Alfred Büllesbach	227
14.	The Ethics of Informed Consent in Adolescent Research R. John Kinkel / Norma C. Josef	237
15.	Ethical Problems of Survey Research on Delinquency: An Empirical Analysis of Accessing and Interviewing Young Offenders Günter Albrecht / Susanne Karstedt-Henke	249
16.	On Dangerous Research: The Fate of a Study of the Police in Norway Thomas Mathiesen	273