

Contents

---

Introduction

Hope and Uncertainty in Health and Medicine

Bernhard Hadolt and Andrea Stöckl ..... 7

Part I: Pragmatics of Hope and Uncertainty

1 Embracing Uncertainty

Sjaak van der Geest ..... 25

2 Hope, Trust, Medical Action, and Care

The Moral Challenges of Practising Medicine Today

Sylvie Fortin and Sabrina Lessard ..... 39

Part II: The Techno-Sphere

3 Self-Tracking Practices of “Doing Health”

Mobilizations of Data and Technological Inscriptions of (Un)Certainty

Anna Heitger ..... 61

4 Precarious Lives, Uncertainty and the Politics of Hope

Engaging With Novel Therapies for Blood Disorders in India

Sangeeta Chattoo ..... 79

5 Between Uncertainty and Routinization

Accounting for Non-Invasive Prenatal Genetic Testing in Germany

Stefan Reinsch ..... 97

|                                                                                  |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 6 “Being a Little Bit Pregnant”                                           |     |
| Temporality and the Pragmatics of Uncertainty and Hope in In-Vitro Fertilization |     |
| Bernhard Hadolt .....                                                     | 117 |

Part III: Health Management

|                                                                            |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 7 Solo Living and Cancer in Denmark                                 |     |
| Understanding Care Politics as the Architect of Human Vulnerabilities      |     |
| Rikke Sand Andersen .....                                           | 137 |
| 8 The Uncertain Future of Antibiotics                               |     |
| Navigating Bacterial Presence in Hospitals amidst Antimicrobial Resistance |     |
| Antonia Modelhart .....                                             | 155 |
| 9 Transfigurations of Lived Iatrogenic Risks in Switzerland         |     |
| Rachel Démolis, Thierry Buclin, and Rose-Anna Foley .....           | 175 |
| 10 “Skyped, Zoomed and WhatsApped”                                  |     |
| Practicing Psychotherapy in Pandemic Times                                 |     |
| Andrea Stöckl .....                                                 | 197 |

Part IV: Individual and Socially Distributed Emotions

|                                                                                           |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 11 Affective Processes and the Diagnosing of Chronic Fatigue                       |     |
| Mette Bech Risør and Nina Nissen .....                                             | 213 |
| 12 Fighting for Recovery                                                           |     |
| The Certain Uncertainty of Living with Locked-in Syndrome                                 |     |
| Lina Masana .....                                                                  | 231 |
| 13 Figurations of Feasting on Fermented Food in Four Remote Regions of Switzerland |     |
| With Hope, for Health, at Home                                                            |     |
| Elisabeth Hsu .....                                                                | 251 |

Appendix

|                           |     |
|---------------------------|-----|
| Contributors ..... | 273 |
|---------------------------|-----|