

Contents

Civilization, Modernization and the Development of Crime and Control (Hans-Günther Heiland and Louise Shelley)	1
1 Introduction.	1
2 Civilization and Modernization – Two Paradigms to Describe Long Term Changes in Crime and Control	2
2.1 The Civilization Concept	2
2.2 The Modernization Concept	5
3 Civilizing and Modernizing: Concerning the Exploratory Power of Two Paradigms	7
3.1 Civilizing and Modernizing and Their Impact on Crime and Control in Developed Societies	7
3.2 Civilizing and Modernizing and Their Impact on Crime and Control in Developing Societies	11
3.3 Civilizing and Modernizing and Their Impact on Crime and Control in Socialist Societies	15
4 Remarks Concerning the Rewards of the Concepts of Civilizing and Modernizing.	17
Part I Crime and Control in Developed Nations	21
Developments in Delinquency and Criminal Justice: A Nordic Perspective (Matti Joutsen)	23
1 Background	23
2 The Development of Crime in the Nordic Countries.	23
3 Changes in the Development of Crime Control in the Nordic Countries	36
4 The Connection between Crime and Crime Control: Conclusions	40
Modern Patterns of Crime and Control in the Federal Republic of Germany (Hans-Günther Heiland)	45
1 The Welfare-State-Thesis.	45
2 Development of Crime and Control in the FRG from 1950 to 1987	47
2.1 Development of Crime.	47
2.1.1 Development of Violent Crime	48
2.1.2 Development of Drug Offences.	49
2.1.3 Development of Larceny Cases	51
2.1.4 Development of Other Important Criminal Offences	57

2.1.5	Summary	57
2.2	The Development of Social Control	58
2.2.1	Criminal Justice Process: Sentences	58
2.2.2	The Development of How the Prosecuting Attorney's Offices and the Courts Deal with Cases.	61
2.2.3	The Definition of New Penal Case Facts	63
3.	Development Trends	64
The Development of Delinquency and Criminal Justice in Japan (Hisao Katoh)		69
1	Criminal Trends in Japan	69
1.1	Penal Code Offences	69
1.2	Major Penal Code Offences	72
1.3	Offences against Special Laws	72
2	Trends in certain Offences and Offenders	73
2.1	Drug Offences	73
2.2	Bo-ryo-ku-dan Offenders (Offenders composing or associ- ated with Bo-ryo-ku-dan)	73
2.3	Mentally Disordered Offenders	74
2.4	Offences by Terrorist Groups	75
2.5	Aged Offenders	75
2.6	Female Offenders	75
2.7	Juvenile Delinquency	76
3	The Penal System and Prison as a "Crime Control" in Japan	77
4	The Objectives and the Reality of Treatment in Penal Institutions	78
5	Reasons for a Low Incidence of Crime in Japan	79
The Development of American Crime: A Comparative Perspective (Louise I. Shelley)		83
1	The Development of Social Factors Influencing American Crime	84
2	The Dynamics of Crime	86
3	The Response to Crime	93
4	Discussion	102
Part II Crime and Control in Developing Nations		107
Crime and Control in Venezuela (Christopher Birkbeck)		109
1	The Crime Problem in Venezuela	110
1.1	Predatory Crime	111
1.2	Corruption	117
1.3	Drug Trafficking and Drug Use	119
2	Crime Control in Venezuela	122

Contents	XI
2.1 A General Perspective	122
2.2 Responding to Crises	123
3 Conclusion	125
Crime and Control in the English-Speaking Caribbean: A Comparative Study of Jamaica, Trinidad, Tobago and Barbados 1960-1980 (Hyacinthe Ellis)	131
1 Development in Criminality over Two Decades 1960-1980...	133
1.1 Total Crimes Reported	133
1.2 Crimes against Property	135
1.3 Crimes against the Person	135
2 Trends in Law Enforcement and Crime	137
3 Sentencing Practices and Crime	141
4 The Jamaican Problem	151
Crime and Control in Nigeria (Olufunmilayo Oloruntimehin)	163
1 Introduction	163
2 Crime Trends in Nigeria	165
3 Juvenile Delinquency and Some Specific Types of Criminality	172
3.1 Juvenile Delinquency	172
3.2 Female Criminality	173
3.3 Drug Offences	176
3.4 Corporate Offences	177
3.5 Offences Related to Insurance Companies	177
3.6 Frauds Connected With Banks	178
4 Crime Prevention and Control	179
5 Crime Control	180
6 The Criminal Justice System	181
6.1 The Police	182
6.2 The Judiciary	183
6.3 The Prison	184
7 Conclusion	185
Crime and Control in Comparative Perspective: The Case of India (R. S. Shrivastava)	189
1 Introductory Remarks	189
2 Crime Trends and Crime Patterns	190
2.1 Official Crime Statistics	190
2.2 Crime in India: Trends and Patterns	191
2.2.1 Juvenile Delinquency	194
2.2.2 Socio-Economic Crimes	195
3 The Indian Scene: An Analysis	196
4 Crime and Punishment: An Indian Perspective	198

4.1	Penal Options	199
4.2	Female Offenders and Victims	199
4.3	Crime and Social Injustice	200
4.4	Capital Punishment.....	202
4.5	Challenge of Economic Crimes	203
4.6	Corporate Criminal Responsibility	204
5	Policing Society.....	205
6	Conclusion.....	205

Part III Crime and Control in Socialist Nations 209

Delinquency and the Development of Penal Sanctions in the German Democratic Republic (Lothar Reuter) 211

1	The Dynamics of Crime and Control	211
2	The Structural Problem of Criminality	213
3	Control Strategies.....	219

Crime Control and Crime Policy in Hungary (Kathalin Gönczöl) .. 225

1	Introductory Thoughts	225
2	Hungarian Criminal Policy in the 1980s	226
3	Possible Reforms	235

Crime and Control in China (He Bingsong) 241

1	The Basic Situation of Crime After the Foundation of the People's Republic of China	241
1.1	1949 – 1956	241
1.2	1957 – 1965	242
1.3	1966 – 1976	243
1.4	1977 – 1989	244
2	Prevention and Control of Crime in China.....	250
2.1	Reforming and Rehabilitating Criminals Through Labour... ..	253
2.2	The Prevention of Law Violation and Crime Commission is a Central Component of the Crime Control Strategy.....	254
2.3	Organizing the Masses to Help and Educate the Juvenile Delinquents.....	256
3	Strengthening the Construction of Spiritual Civilization, Educating the People for Political Thought, Morality and Legal System, Enhancing the People's Quality and Cultivating the Good Moral Look of the Society	257

Part IV The Interpretative Turn: A Second Look 259

Power, Individualism and the Sanctity of Human Life: Development of Criminality and Punishment in Four Cultures (Hans Haferkamp and Hyacinthe Ellis)	261

1 Development of Criminality and Punishment in Four Cul- tures	261
2 Structural Properties of Modernity: The Levelling-Out of Power, Individualisation and the Sanctity of Life.	264
2.1 Trend to the Levelling-Out of Power	264
2.1.1 The New Concept of Achievement in Key Industries, the Rise in Criminality and Mitigation of Punishment in W- Europe	266
2.1.2 The Regaining of Power and the Tightening of the Penal Law in the U.S.A.	266
2.1.3 Defence of Authority, Stable Penal Law and Controlled Criminality in Japan	268
2.1.4 Civil Rights, Regaining of Power and Increasing of Punish- ment in Jamaica	270
2.2 The Trend to Individualisation	272
2.2.1 Competitive Individualism and the Rise in Criminality in W-Europe, the U.S.A. and Jamaica	272
2.2.2 The Group and Conformity in Japan	273
2.3 The Trend of Valuation of Sanctity of Human Life	274
2.3.1 Anti-Feudal Fights and Sanctity of Life	275
2.3.2 Late Consequences of Slavery: Low Valuation of Human Life by Criminals and the State	275
2.3.3 Deep South, Murder and Execution of Death Penalty	276
3 Conclusions	276
Abbreviations.	281
Notes on Contributors.	283
Index.	287