

Table of Contents

1.	Introduction to the German M&A Market	1
2.	The Sale Process and its Legal Implications	3
2.1	Sale by controlled auction or to a single designated buyer	3
	(a) Duty of care for management decisions	3
	(b) Aspects relevant for the choice of the type of process	4
2.2	Controlled auction	4
	(a) Internal preparation phase I	4
	(b) Internal preparation phase II	5
	(c) Marketing phase	5
	(d) Auction phase I	5
	(e) Auction phase II	6
	(f) SPA negotiations	6
2.3	Sale to single buyer	7
2.4	Legal pitfalls in due diligence process	7
	(a) Confidentiality duties and due diligence	7
	(b) Special statutory duties of confidentiality with respect to employee data	10
	(c) Legal duty of buyer to conduct a due diligence	11
	(d) Duties of disclosure	11
	(e) Pitfalls in auction process	12
2.5	Auction in public takeovers	13
3.	Preparatory Steps – Reorganisation, Carve-Out, Spin-offs	15
3.1	Introduction	15
3.2	Requirement and extent of preparatory reorganisation measures	15
3.3	Individual reorganisation measures	16
	(a) Reorganisational measures to turn the target business into the desired legal form	16
	(b) Separation of the target business from the group structure or, respectively the business remaining with the seller	22
	(c) Squeeze-out of minority shareholders	22
	(d) Removal of other legal obstacles	23
	(e) Employment law measures	24
4.	The Purchase Agreement	25
4.1	Introduction and an initial overview	25

4.2	Legal regime for company acquisitions	31
	(a) Pre-contractual liability under German statute	32
	(b) Statutory warranty provisions	36
4.3	The share purchase and transfer agreement – the typical contractual regime	40
	(a) Determination and transfer of the object of purchase	41
	(b) The transfer of the target company – details on the transfer of shares	54
	(c) Conditions precedent / closing conditions	61
	(d) Agreement on the purchase price	75
	(e) Closing actions	80
	(f) Seller's warranties	80
	(g) Remedies, liability regime	91
	(h) Indemnities	104
	(i) Collaterals	107
	(j) Covenants	107
5.	Hedging against Non-performance in M&A – Escrows, Legal Opinion etc.	111
5.1	Protective purposes	111
5.2	Informative guarantees	112
	(a) Due diligence reports	112
	(b) Opinion letter	113
	(c) The due diligence report as hedging security for lenders	115
	(d) Third party protection of due diligence reports and opinion letters	115
5.3	Financial securities	117
	(a) Escrow accounts	117
	(b) The risk exposure of an escrow in insolvency proceedings of either party	119
	(c) Payment guarantees and sureties	120
	(d) “Patronatserklärungen” – guarantees for the financial standing of an affiliate	121
5.4	Summary	121
6.	Acquisition Financing – Taking into Consideration the Changes Emerging from the MoMiG	123
6.1	General introduction	123
6.2	Overview of an acquisition structure	124
6.3	Debt capital	124
	(a) Senior loans	125
	(b) Working capital facilities	129
	(c) Debt push down	129
6.4	Mezzanine capital	130
	(a) Subordinated loans	131
	(b) Shareholder loans	131
	(c) Silent participation	132
	(d) Warrants and convertible bonds	132

6.5	Equity capital	132
	(a) Share capital increase	132
	(b) Payment into capital reserves	134
	(c) Shareholders' loan	134
7.	Public Takeover, Squeeze-out and Taking Private	137
7.1	Scope of application of WpÜG	137
7.2	Voluntary and mandatory takeover offers	138
	(a) Voluntary takeover offer and other voluntary offers	138
	(b) Mandatory offer	138
	(c) Voluntary offer vs. mandatory offer	139
7.3	Attribution of third party voting rights to bidder	140
7.4	Consideration and minimum pricing regime	141
	(a) Cash or actively traded shares	141
	(b) Minimum pricing regime	141
7.5	Competing offers	142
7.6	Procedure for voluntary takeover offers	142
	(a) Preparatory phase	142
	(b) Announcement phase	145
	(c) Offer phase	146
	(d) Post-Offer Phase	147
7.7	Squeeze-out	147
	(a) Takeover-related squeeze-out	148
	(b) Corporate law squeeze-out	149
	(c) Merger squeeze-out	151
7.8	Other forms of taking private	152
	(a) Regular delisting	152
	(b) Merger or change of legal form	152
8.	Transparency and Reporting Obligations, Stealth Takeovers and Tactical Strategies for Companies against a Takeover	153
8.1	Introduction	153
8.2	The Risk Limitation Act	153
	(a) "Acting in concert", sec 22 para 2 WpHG	154
	(b) Addition of voting rights from shares and financial instruments, sec 25 para 1 sentence 3 WpHG	156
	(c) Reporting obligations for holders of material shares, sec 27a WpHG	157
	(d) Penalties, sec 28 WpHG	157
	(e) Identification of holders of nominal shares, sec 67 AktG	158
	(f) Enhanced information rights of employees, sec 106 and 109a BetrVG	159
8.3	Strategy of a stealth takeover: Cash settled equity total return swaps	159
	(a) Stealth takeover strategy	160
	(b) The case of Schaeffler KG and Continental AG	160
	(c) Reporting and disclosure obligations of cash settled equity total return swaps under German law	161

8.4	Instruments of defence against a takeover	162
	(a) Pre-emptive strategies	162
	(b) Strategies within a takeover situation	163
8.5	Summary	164
9.	Post Closing – Restructuring and Reorganisation Following Completion of the Transaction (Including Cross-border Mergers, Utilisation of an SE, Societas Europaea)	165
9.1	Introduction	165
9.2	Post-merger integration: process and organisation	166
	(a) Phases of integration	166
	(b) Scope of integration	166
	(c) Areas of integration	166
9.3	Individual corporate reorganisation measures	167
	(a) Affiliation into a group of companies (Konzernierung)	167
	(b) Consolidation of the buyer's business and the target business	170
	(c) Carve-out of business activities	177
	(d) Change of the legal form	177
	(e) Squeeze-out concerning stock corporations	177
	(f) Sale/management buy-out of redundant businesses/business parts	178
10.	Mergers & Acquisitions – Aspects of Taxation in Germany	179
10.1	Tax aspects of the sale of assets of a German business (asset deal)	179
	(a) Seller	179
	(b) Buyer	182
10.2	Tax aspects of the sale of shares in a German Company (share deal)	183
	(a) Seller	183
	(b) Buyer	185
10.3	Tax aspects of the transfer of an interest in a German partnership (share deal)	187
	(a) Seller	187
	(b) Buyer	188
10.4	Tax due diligence – specific tax issues in Germany	188
	(a) Tax group	188
	(b) Tax loss carry forwards	189
	(c) Interest stripping rules	190
	(d) Constructive dividends	192
	(e) Transfer pricing	192
10.4	Tax clauses	193
	(a) Typical tax clauses in an asset deal	193
	(b) Typical tax clauses in a share deal	194
11.	Employment Law Issues in Transactions	197
11.1	Introduction	197
11.2	Employment law and due diligence	197
	(a) Preliminary questions	198

11.3	Employment law in asset deals	199
	(a) Legal framework	199
	(b) Employment law implications for the timing of the deal	203
11.4	Employment law in share deals	204
11.5	Post-closing	205
	(a) Restructurings	205
	(b) Harmonisation of employment conditions	207
12.	Competition Law	209
12.1	Introduction	209
12.2	Notifiable transactions	209
	(a) General	209
	(b) Concentrations	210
	(c) Exceptions	214
12.3	Notification thresholds	215
	(a) Turnover thresholds	215
	(b) Effect of mergers in Germany, in particular: foreign-to-foreign mergers	216
	(c) De minimis thresholds for exceptions from German merger control	217
12.4	Merger control procedure and sanctions	218
	(a) Notification	218
	(b) Procedure	220
	(c) Sanctions	222
12.5	Substantive assessment	223
	(a) Creation or strengthening of a dominant market position	223
	(b) Balancing clause	227
12.6	Competent Authorities	228
	(a) BKartA	228
	(b) Federal Minister of Economics and Technology	228
12.7	Judicial Review	229
	(a) General	229
	(b) Third party rights	230
13.	Dispute Resolution	231
13.1	Overview	231
13.2	State court litigation	231
	(a) Jurisdiction	231
	(b) Choice of forum agreement	232
	(c) Procedure before state courts	233
	(d) Interim measures	235
	(e) Appeals	235
	(f) Costs	235
	(g) Enforcement	236
13.3	Arbitration	236
	(a) Applicability of the German provision on arbitration	236
	(b) Arbitration agreement	237

(c) Multi-party arbitration	238
(d) Interim measures	239
(e) Challenge of arbitral awards	239
(f) Excursus: avoiding the statute of limitation by initiating inadmissible state court proceedings	240
(g) Fast track arbitration	240
(h) Enforcement of arbitral awards	240
13.4 Expert opinion	241
14. Restrictions on Investments	243
14.1 Introduction	243
14.2 German foreign trade law	243
(a) Military supplies, krypton technology and systems for investigating the apogee	244
(b) (Any) other industry sectors	245
(c) Legal protection	248
14.3 Proposed restriction on investments in energy networks	248
15. Sector-specific Characteristics	251
15.1 Energy	251
(a) Introduction	251
(b) Mergers and acquisitions within the power production sector	252
(c) Mergers and acquisitions within the network sector	254
(d) Price regulation	261
(e) Consolidation within the German energy market	261
(f) Mergers and acquisitions within the renewable energies sector	263
15.2 Property	264
(a) Introduction	264
(b) Difference between a share deal and a typical M&A transaction	266
(c) Share purchase agreement	269
(d) Acquisition of a developing PropCo	270
(e) Post-completion	271
15.3 Private Equity	272
(a) Introduction	272
(b) Private Equity in Germany	274
(c) Private Equity strategies	275
(d) Investment restriction	279
(e) Typical features in the legal documentation	281
15.4 Distressed Debt/Restructurings	284
(a) Distressed Debt Investments	285
(b) Distressed Equity Investments	292
Abbreviations	300
Authors	305