

Contents

Sabine Gebhardt Fink, Andrej Mirčev

Editorial Notes 7

NARRATIONS OF THE BEGINNINGS

Dror Harari

Competing Historiographies of the 1970s Israeli Action and Performance Art 23

Andrea Bátorová

Art History and Its Narratives in Former Czechoslovakia
Before and After 1989 41

Andrej Mirčev

Memory of the Star in (ex-)Yugoslav Performance Art.
Transgenerational Embodiments of the Pathos-Formula 63

Cláudia Madeira and Fernando Matos Oliveira

From (Proto)Performance to Reenactment. Similarity and Anachronism in (Portuguese) Performance Art History 85

Andrea Saemann, Muda Mathis, Chris Regn and

Margarit von Büren interviewed by Sabine Gebhardt Fink, drawings by Lena Eriksson Staggering Research 103

CROSS-MAPPING: FEMINIST NARRATIONS, SUBVERSIVE ACTIONS AND A PARA-ETHNOGRAPHIC REPORT

Oriana Fox

Beyond Before and After: Feminist Performance Art as Radical Self-Care 121

Séverine Fromaigeat

Making Room for Different Bodies and Subversive Actions:
Is Performance Art a Tool for Emancipation? 143

Hanna B. Hölling, Jules Pelta Feldman and Emilie Magnin

Performance Conservation: A Condition Report, or a Para-Ethnography in Three Acts 155

Dorothea Rust

Skor of: An Improvised Criss-crossed (autobiographical)
Performance as a Lecture as a Performance as a Lecture 173

RECENT RESEARCH METHODS: CRITICAL METHODOLOGIES
IN PERFORMANCE STUDIES AND LIVE ART

Sabine Gebhardt Fink

The Communicative Memory as a Category for Research in the Field of Performance and Live Art 185

Stephen Greer

From the “Miraculous” to the Radical. Towards a Methodology for Researching Live Art and Performance Art in Scotland 201

Sandra Sykora

“I hope I hear from you soon concerning many small details.”
Historic Contractual Documentation as a Source of Information in the Field of Performance Art Research 223

Acknowledgements 237

Contributors 239