

Acknowledgements	7
List of abbreviations	13
Introduction to Informal language learning: Expanding the English learning horizons beyond the classroom	15
0.1. Introduction	15
0.2. Overview of the chapters	18
References	21
Chapter 1 What is informal learning?	29
1.1. Introduction	29
1.2. Evolution of the concept of informal learning	29
1.2.1. Informal learning	30
1.2.2. Informal language learning	31
1.3. Informal learning terminology	33
1.3.1. Learning Beyond the Classroom (LBC)	34
1.3.2. Extramural English (EE)	36
1.3.3. Online Informal Learning of English (OILE)	38
1.3.4. Informal Digital Learning of English (IDLE)	40
1.3.5. Learning in the Wild (LW)	41
1.3.6. Informal Second Language Learning (ISLL)	42
1.4. Usage-based approaches and informal learning	43
References	46
Chapter 2 Informal language learning: The importance of exposure to English input	53

2.1. Introduction	53
2.2. The role of input, output, and interaction: Theoretical perspectives	53
2.3. Main qualities of out-of-class language practices: Exposure to L2 input	60
2.3.1. Accessibility	62
2.3.2. Autonomy	63
2.3.3. Motivation	65
2.3.4. Authenticity	67
2.3.5. Identity and investment	68
2.3.6. Flow	69
2.3.7. Grit	70
2.3.8. Affective filter	71
2.3.9. Multimodality	72
2.3.10. (Un)intentional learning	74
References	75

Chapter 3 Out-of-school English-related practices and their influence on language learning (i): Television (TV)

programmes, series and films, video games, and music	93
3.1. Introduction	93
3.2. General out-of-school English language-related practices	94
3.3. Watching TV programmes, series, and films (with and without subtitles)	99
3.4. Playing digital games	105
3.5. Listening to music	115
References	119

Chapter 4 Out-of-school English related practices and their influence on language learning (ii): Reading, writing, and speaking 129

- 4.1. Introduction 129
- 4.2. Reading practices outside the classroom 129
- 4.3. Writing practices outside the classroom 135
- 4.4. Speaking practices outside the classroom 140
- References 147

Chapter 5 Variables in informal language learning: Motivation, engagement, and affective variables 153

- 5.1. Introduction 153
- 5.2. Motivation 153
 - 5.2.1. Motivation and engagement 155
 - 5.2.2. Motivation and other variables 158
- 5.3. Engagement 161
 - 5.3.1. Engagement and proficiency 163
 - 5.3.2. Engagement and enjoyment 166
- 5.4. Affective variables 167
 - 5.4.1. Anxiety 167
 - 5.4.2. Confidence and self-confidence 170
 - 5.4.3. Enjoyment 172
 - 5.4.4. Willingness to communicate (WTC) 173
- References 177

Chapter 6 The pedagogy of informal language learning 187

- 6.1. Introduction 187
- 6.2. Teachers and students’ perspectives on informal language learning 187

6.3. Bridging the gap between formal and informal language practices 193

6.3.1. Finding out about students’ informal language practices: Data collection methods 194

6.3.2. Incorporating new technologies in the classroom to promote student engagement 199

6.3.3. Implementing new learning environments in the classroom to enhance the language learning experience 201

6.4. Conclusion 203

References 205

Chapter 7 Conclusion 213

7.1. Introduction 213

7.2. Contents: Main findings 213

7.2.1. Terminology 213

7.2.2. The significance of input, output and interaction 214

7.2.3. Informal learning practices 215

7.2.4. Individual learning paths and associated variables 216

7.2.5. Pedagogical implications 218

7.3. Future lines of research 219

References 222