

Table of Contents

|                                                                                |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Preface .....                                                           | VII |
| Chapter 1                                                               |     |
| Introduction .....                                                      | 1   |
| 1.1. Wisdom as a Literary Construct .....                                      | 1   |
| 1.2. The Unity of the Text and its Genre .....                                 | 3   |
| 1.3. Provenance and Dating .....                                               | 9   |
| 1.4. The Emergence of Middle Platonism.....                                    | 13  |
| 1.5. The Literary World of the Book of Wisdom .....                            | 15  |
| 1.6. The Structure of the Book of Wisdom .....                                 | 19  |
| Chapter 2                                                               |     |
| The Mercy Dialogue .....                                                | 25  |
| 2.1 The Mercy Dialogue as a Digression.....                                    | 25  |
| 2.2. Themes of the Mercy Dialogue .....                                        | 30  |
| 2.2.1. God as Creator.....                                                     | 30  |
| 2.2.2. The Hypothetical Instruments of Punishment (11.17-19).....              | 34  |
| 2.2.3. Measure, Number, and Weight (11.20d).....                               | 39  |
| 2.2.4. 'Little by Little' - Instruments of Punishment (12.1-10).....           | 42  |
| 2.2.5. The Sovereign Power of God (12.12-18) .....                             | 48  |
| 2.2.6. The Lesson for Israel (12.19-22) .....                                  | 50  |
| 2.3. Conclusions from the Mercy Dialogue .....                                 | 52  |
| Chapter 3                                                               |     |
| The Apocalyptic Drama .....                                             | 54  |
| 3.1. Divine Justice and Divine Mercy in the Apocalyptic Drama.....             | 54  |
| 3.2. The Prologue (1.1-1.16).....                                              | 56  |
| 3.3. The LXX Setting of the Drama .....                                        | 59  |
| 3.4. The Speeches of the Wicked (2.1-20, 5.4-13).....                          | 63  |
| 3.4.1. The First Speech. (2.1-20).....                                         | 64  |
| 3.4.1.1. The Bargain with Death (2.1-4) .....                                  | 64  |
| 3.4.1.2. The Mockery of Justice (2.5-9) .....                                  | 67  |
| 3.4.1.3. The Discourse of the Tyrants on Justice and Injustice (2.10-20) ..... | 68  |
| 3.4.2. The Second Speech of the Wicked (5.4-13).....                           | 72  |
| 3.4.2.1. The Setting of the Second Speech.....                                 | 72  |
| 3.4.2.2. The Wicked Recognise their Sin (5.1-5).....                           | 74  |
| 3.4.2.3. Confession and Self-condemnation (5.6-13).....                        | 74  |

|                                                                              |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 3.5. Relationship of the First Speech of the Wicked to the Second Speech ... | 77 |
| 3.6. God's Judgement - The Calamity of the Wicked (5.17-23) .....            | 80 |
| 3.7. The Dilemma of the Death of the Righteous Man .....                     | 82 |
| 3.8. The Vindication of the Just (3.1-15, 5.15-16) .....                     | 83 |
| 3.9. Transition: The Second Address to the Kings (6.1-6.21).....             | 86 |

Chapter 4

|                                                                               |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Creation Of Righteousness - Wisdom .....                           | 89  |
| 4.1 Wisdom's role in the Apocalyptic Drama (Chapters 1-6).....                | 89  |
| 4.2. Genre and Structure of the Wisdom Chapters .....                         | 91  |
| 4.2.1. Genre .....                                                            | 92  |
| 4.2.2. Structure .....                                                        | 102 |
| 4.2.2.1. Comparison of Structural Analyses of the Wisdom Chapters (6-10)..... | 104 |
| 4.3. The King's Narrative .....                                               | 105 |
| 4.3.1. The Exhortation to the Kings to join with Wisdom (6.1-25) .....        | 105 |
| 4.3.2. The First Autobiographical Speech of the King/Narrator (7.1-21) 108    |     |
| 4.3.2.1. The King's Mortality (7.1-6).....                                    | 108 |
| 4.3.2.2. Wisdom as the Criterion of Knowledge.....                            | 110 |
| 4.3.2.2.a. The Acquisition of Wisdom or the 'End of Goods' (7.7-14) .....     | 110 |
| 4.3.2.2.b. Knowledge of the World and the Planetary System (7.15-22) .....    | 113 |
| 4.3.2.2.c. Knowledge of Wisdom as World Soul or Logos (7.22-8.1).....  | 115 |
| 4.3.2.2.d. Wisdom as the Virtues (8.2-21) .....                               | 117 |
| 4.3.3. The Task of the King with Wisdom – The Second Speech (9.1-18)119       |     |
| 4.3.4. Knowledge of the Blueprint (10.1-21) .....                             | 123 |
| 4.4. Wisdom and Saving Knowledge.....                                         | 130 |

Chapter 5

|                                                                             |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Corruption Of Life - Idolatry .....                              | 132 |
| 5.1. False Worship – The Antithesis of Wisdom .....                         | 132 |
| 5.2. Structure of the Critique of False Worship (Part 1).....               | 134 |
| 5.3. Constructing Errors: Analysis of the Sub-sections in Chapters 13-15 .. | 138 |
| 5.3.1. Knowledge of the World and the Planetary System (13.1-9).....        | 138 |
| 5.3.2. The Idol-makers .....                                                | 142 |
| 5.3.2.1. The Carpenter (13.10-19).....                                      | 142 |
| 5.3.2.2. The Ship's Idols (14.1-11).....                                    | 148 |
| 5.3.2.3. Causes and Origins of Idolatry (14.15-21) .....                    | 152 |
| 5.3.2.4. Idolatry as Vice (14.22-31) .....                                  | 156 |
| 5.3.2.5. The Potter (15.1-13) .....                                         | 159 |
| 5.3.3. The Author's Summary and the Introduction to Animal Worship .        | 165 |
| 5.4. The Structure of the Review of False Worship (Part 2).....             | 167 |

Chapter 6

|                                                                            |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Judgement Of Egypt And The Transcendent 'Ideas' Of God .....    | 170 |
| 6.1. The Seven-fold Comparison.....                                        | 170 |
| 6.2. Genre and Structure .....                                             | 174 |
| 6.2.1. Genre.....                                                          | 174 |
| 6.2.2. Structure .....                                                     | 176 |
| 6.3. Analysis of the Diptychs .....                                        | 180 |
| 6.3.1. The Context of Diptych 1 (11.1-14) .....                            | 180 |
| 6.3.2. Analysis of Diptych 1 .....                                         | 182 |
| 6.3.3. Relationship of Diptych 1 to Mercy Dialogue and False Worship ..... | 186 |
| 6.3.4. The First Three Signs: Diptychs 2, 3 and 4. (16.1-29) .....         | 189 |
| 6.3.4.1. Diptych 2 (16.1-3).....                                           | 190 |
| 6.3.4.2. Diptych 3 (16.5-15) .....                                         | 192 |
| 6.3.4.3. Diptych 4 (16.16-29).....                                         | 195 |
| 6.3.5. The Second Group of Signs–Diptychs 5, 6 & 7 (17.1-19.22) .....      | 200 |
| 6.3.5.1. Diptych 5 (17.1-18.4) .....                                       | 200 |
| 6.3.5.2. Diptych 6 (18.5-25) .....                                         | 206 |
| 6.3.5.3. Diptych 7 (19.1-22) .....                                         | 211 |
| 6.4. The Diptychs as a Defence of Israel .....                             | 216 |
| 6.4.1. The Mythical Construct in the Diptychs of Wisdom .....              | 217 |
| 6.4.2. Definitions of Israel .....                                         | 218 |

Chapter 7

|                         |     |
|-------------------------|-----|
| Conclusion ..... | 220 |
|-------------------------|-----|

Chapter 8

|                                                                        |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Appendix: The History And Reception Of The Book Of Wisdom ..... | 225 |
| 8.1. Wisdom and the LXX .....                                          | 225 |
| 8.2. The Problem of the LXX.....                                       | 225 |
| 8.3. The Formation of the Canons .....                                 | 229 |
| 8.4. Christian Adoption of LXX.....                                    | 231 |
| 8.5. The Place of Wisdom in the Jewish and Christian Communities.....  | 234 |
| 8.6. Patristic Use of the Book of Wisdom .....                         | 237 |
| 8.7. Wisdom in the Medieval and Post-Reformation Church .....          | 243 |

|                                  |     |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| Bibliography .....        | 246 |
| Index of References ..... | 265 |
| Index of Authors .....    | 288 |
| Index of Subjects .....   | 291 |