

Contents

Acknowledgements — xi

List of Tables and Figures — xiii

List of Abbreviations — xiv

- 1 Introduction: Why Judah and Israel Again? — 1
 - 1.1 Social and Psychological Nature of Identity — 1
 - 1.2 Context Matters — 4
 - 1.3 Narrative as a Tool — 12
 - 1.4 Brief Review of Scholarship — 16
 - 1.5 Summary of Chapters — 24

Part I: Judah Desires Israel

- 2 United yet Divided: Reading Judah and Israel in the Context of Two Koreas — 33
 - 2.1 Two Conceptions of Israel — 34
 - 2.2 One People, Two Polities? — 36
 - 2.3 Judah's Invention of One Israel — 44
 - 2.4 Israel in Ideal and Real — 47
 - 2.5 Conclusion — 48
- 3 Recent Debate on the Emergence of Biblical Israel — 49
 - 3.1 Current Debate on Judah's Assumption of Israel Identity — 49
 - 3.2 Na'aman and Struggle for Patrimony — 56
 - 3.3 Recent Challenges to Appropriation Model — 59
 - 3.4 Conclusion — 65
- 4 Rethinking Northern Refugees — 66
 - 4.1 Some Observations on Refugees in Korean Contexts — 69
 - 4.1.1 Koguryŏ Refugees to Silla — 69
 - 4.1.2 Lessons from North Korean Migrant Settlers — 73
 - 4.2 From Transmission to Appropriation — 76
 - 4.2.1 Masking Judah's Agency — 77
 - 4.2.2 Masking Jerusalem's Complex Composition — 81
 - 4.3 Conclusion — 81

5	Inferiority, Desire, and Judah's Contradictory Self — 83
5.1	Inferiority as Source of Desire — 84
5.2	Judah's Inferiority — 86
5.2.1	North Israel's Mythic Past — 86
5.2.2	Judah's Superficial Past — 87
5.2.3	Judah's Canaanite Connection — 89
5.3	Appropriation and Insecurity — 91
5.4	Merits and Shortcomings of Appropriation Model — 93
5.5	Conclusion — 95
6	Israel and Judah, China and its Others — 96
6.1	Korea, the Little China? — 97
6.2	Foreign Rulers of China — 100
6.3	New Qing History and Judah — 103
6.4	Sinicization, Israelization, and Judah's Hybridity — 105
6.5	Conclusion — 108

Part II: Judah Rewrites Israel's Past

7	Tradition, Narrative, and Identity: A Theoretical Discussion — 111
7.1	Past and Present — 111
7.2	Narrative and Identity — 114
7.3	Identity Narrative and Instrumentality — 116
7.4	Identity Formation and Time — 119
7.5	Conclusion — 123
8	Jacob and Abraham, North and South — 125
8.1	Jacob and Abraham in Critical Research — 125
8.2	Abrahamic Expansion — 130
8.3	Abraham and David as Judah's Twin Prototypes — 133
8.4	Conclusion — 135
9	Jacob: From an Indigenous Hero to Israel's Father — 136
9.1	Jacob Story in the Present Text — 137
9.2	Pre-P Jacob Story as Northern Israel's Identity Narrative — 141
9.3	Jacob and Exodus Traditions within Northern Israel — 147
9.4	Jacob, Canaan, and Israel's Indigenous Persona — 149
9.4.1	Self in Jacob Story — 151
9.4.2	Others in Jacob Story and Israel's Outer Boundary — 154
9.5	Conclusion — 161

10 Abraham and Forward Expansion of Israel's Past: A Perspective from Ancient Korean History — 163

- 10.1 Dangun and Multiple Kingdoms in Ancient Korea — 164
- 10.1.1 Myth of One Father — 164
- 10.1.2 Period of the Three Kingdoms — 167
- 10.1.3 Unification and the Myth of Dangun — 169
- 10.2 Functionality of Abraham's Principal Position — 173
- 10.3 Conclusion — 177

11 From Jacob to Abraham: Preliminary Observations — 179

- 11.1 Abraham and Jacob — 179
- 11.1.1 Pre-occupation: Abraham was there first — 180
- 11.1.2 Negation: Abraham Denies Jacob — 185
- 11.1.3 Purification: Abraham Provides Pure Wives for Jacob — 189
- 11.1.4 Extension: Abraham Exiled from the Land — 191
- 11.2 Excursus: Abraham and Moses — 196
- 11.3 Making of the Abrahamic Israel — 198
- 11.3.1 From Indigenous Jacob to Israel's Dual Origin Myths — 198
- 11.3.2 Pre-P Judahite Reformulation — 199
- 11.3.3 Priestly Renovation — 200
- 11.4 Conclusion — 201

12 Conclusion: Judah's Desire and Our Desire — 203

- 12.1 On Functional Approach — 204
- 12.2 On Contextual Approach — 208
- 12.3 History and Identity — 211
- 12.4 Us and Them — 214

Bibliography — 217

Modern Authors Index — 237

Subject Index — 241

Scripture Index — 251