

Contents

Chapter 1

Introduction — 1

References — 3

Chapter 2

The history of Namibia — 5

- 2.1 Pre-colonial Namibia — 5
- 2.2 The scramble for Africa and the German rule — 6
- 2.3 South African rule — 7
- 2.4 Resolution 435 and the transition — 8
- 2.5 Independence — 9
- 2.6 An economic overview — 9
- References — 12

Chapter 3

Origins of the Namibian governance system — 14

- 3.1 Introduction — 14
- 3.2 The pre-colonial construction of governance in Namibia — 15
 - 3.2.1 Governance by Traditional Authority — 15
 - 3.2.2 Stakeholder Theory and Traditional Authorities — 17
- 3.3 The effects of colonialism on Namibian traditional governance — 18
- 3.4 The ongoing relevance of Ubuntu and Stakeholder Theory — 21
- 3.5 Traditional governance structures at statutory level — 23
 - 3.5.1 Powers, Duties and Functions of Traditional Authorities — 23
 - 3.5.2 Designation of Chief or Head of the Traditional Community — 24
 - 3.5.3 Assets and Trust Fund of Traditional Community — 25
- 3.6 Conclusion — 26
- References — 27

Chapter 4

Emergence of contemporary governance — 33

- 4.1 Introduction — 33
- 4.2 Development of corporate governance codes — 33
- 4.3 King III Report on corporate governance — 34
- 4.4 Reasons for the NamCode — 37
- References — 37

Chapter 5

The NamCode in detail — 39

- 5.1 Introduction — 39
- 5.2 Ethical leadership and corporate citizenship (Provision 1) — 40
- 5.3 Board of directors (Provision 2) — 42
 - Principle C2-1: The board acts as a focal point for and custodian of governance — 43
 - Principle C2-2: Strategy; risk, performance and sustainability are inseparable — 43
- 5.4 Audit committees (Provision 3) — 44
 - 5.4.1 Composition of the audit committee — 44
 - 5.4.2 Committee authority — 45
 - 5.4.3 Audit committee resources — 46
 - 5.4.4 Key process: diligence — 46
- 5.5 Risk management (Provision 4) — 47
- 5.6 Risk-based internal audit (Provision 5) — 51
- 5.7 Stakeholder management (Provision 6) — 53
- 5.8 Alternative dispute resolution (Provision 7) — 53
- 5.9 Information technology governance (Provision 8) — 55
- 5.10 Integrated reporting and disclosures (Provision 9) — 56
- 5.11 King IV — 58
- 5.12 Comparison of the NamCode and King IV — 60
 - References — 65

Chapter 6

Governance successes and failures — 69

- 6.1 Failures — 69
 - 6.1.1 Fishrot — 69
 - 6.1.2 SME Bank Limited — 74
- 6.2 Corporate governance success — 76
- 6.3 Summarising remarks — 77
 - References — 77

Chapter 7

Directions for Namibian governance — 79

- 7.1 Challenges to corporate governance in Namibia — 79
- 7.2 Private sector considerations — 79
- 7.3 Public sector considerations — 81
- 7.4 External factors aiding or impeding good corporate governance — 81
 - 7.4.1 Afro-socialism in Namibia — 82
 - 7.4.2 Globalism — 84
 - 7.4.3 Neo-colonialism — 85

7.4.4	Climate change impact on Namibia —	86
7.4.5	Role of technology —	87
7.5	Conclusion —	88
	References —	90

Appendix A: Cultural background of the Namibian people — 93

Appendix B: A summary of similarities and differences of the King Codes — 97

Appendix C: Members of the King Committee — 109

Appendix D: Differences between the NamCode and King III — 111

List of figures — 117

List of tables — 119