

CONTENTS

Preface

Introduction: 'To Stamp Out the Whole Tradition...' Nicholas Pronay	1
1. Great War Prologue Keith Wilson	37
2. The Planning of 'Re-education' during the Second World War Lothar Kettenacker	59
3. The Concept and Practice of 'Re-education' in Germany 1945- 50 Kurt Jürgensen	83
4. The Education Branch of the Military Government of Germany and the Schools Arthur Hearnden	97
5. The Press in the British Zone of Germany Kurt Koszyk	107
6. In Retrospect: Britain's Policy of 'Re-education' Michael Balfour	139
7. Welt im Film: Anglo-American Newsreel Policy Roger Smither	151
8. American Film Policy in the Re-education of Germany after 1945 David Culbert	173
9. The Re-education of Imperial Japan Gordon Daniels	203
10. From 'Re-education' to the Selling of the Marshall Plan in Italy David Ellwood	219
Select Bibliography	241
Index	249