

|                                                                           |           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Dedication.....                                                           | v         |
| Acknowledgments .....                                                     | vii       |
| Foreword by Monnica Williams .....                                        | xiii      |
| 1 Description.....                                                 | 1  |
| 1.1 Terminology .....                                                     | 1         |
| 1.2 Overview .....                                                        | 3         |
| 1.2.1. What This Book Is Not .....                                        | 3         |
| 1.2.2 This Is Not a National Geographic Read .....                 | 5         |
| 1.3 Culture and Intersectionality .....                                   | 6         |
| 1.4 What to Expect From This Book .....                                   | 8         |
| 2 Definition of Culture .....                                      | 10 |
| 2.1 Pluralism and Cultural Intersectionality .....                        | 11        |
| 2.2 Cross-Cultural Models .....                                           | 13        |
| 2.3 Target Audience .....                                                 | 15        |
| 2.4 Client Centered Models .....                                          | 15        |
| 2.5 How to Get to Know the Other Person Without Assuming .....            | 16        |
| 2.6 Solutions .....                                                       | 17        |
| 2.7 Intersecting Identities and Intersecting Cultures and Your Client ... | 18        |
| 2.8 Social Justice .....                                                  | 19        |
| 2.8.1 What Social Justice Has to Do With Cross-Cultural Competence ...    | 21        |
| 2.8.2 Social Justice, Trust, and the Therapeutic Relationship .....       | 22        |
| 3 Bias.....                                                        | 25 |
| 3.1 The Perspective of the Therapist .....                                | 25        |
| 3.2 Bias Defined .....                                                    | 25        |
| 3.3 Your Own Worldview and Bias .....                                     | 27        |
| 3.4 Definition of Racism .....                                            | 27        |
| 3.5 Ignorance and Bias .....                                              | 29        |
| 3.6 Bias in Canada and the US .....                                       | 30        |
| 3.7 Examples .....                                                        | 32        |
| 3.7.1 Example One .....                                                   | 32        |
| 3.7.2 Example Two .....                                                   | 32        |
| 3.7.3 Example Three .....                                                 | 33        |
| 3.7.4 Example Four .....                                                  | 34        |
| 3.7.5 Example Five .....                                                  | 39        |
| 3.7.6 Anxiety About Bias .....                                            | 39        |
| 3.7.7 What Happens When We Are Not Mindful of Bias .....                  | 40        |
| 3.8 Solutions .....                                                       | 40        |
| 3.9 More Examples .....                                                   | 45        |
| 3.9.1 Comedians and Cultural Competence .....                             | 45        |

|          |                                                                       |    |
|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 4 | The Perspective of the Client                                  | 47 |
| 4.1      | Assimilation and Cultural Identity                                    | 50 |
| 4.2      | Internalized Racism and Blaming Themselves or Their Own Cultures      | 51 |
| 4.2.1    | Example                                                               | 51 |
| 4.2.2    | Example                                                               | 52 |
| 4.3      | Self-Critical Beliefs                                                 | 52 |
| 4.4      | Internalized Racism, Identity Hiding, and Code Switching              | 53 |
| 4.5      | The Elephant in the Room                                              | 54 |
| 4.6      | Supporting Human Rights While Remaining Anti-Racist                   | 56 |
| 4.7      | Multiple Contributors to Cultural Identity                            | 57 |
| 4.8      | The Challenge                                                         | 59 |
| 4.9      | Cultural Safety                                                       | 61 |
| 4.10     | Cultural Congruence                                                   | 61 |
| 4.11     | Vulnerability                                                         | 62 |
| 4.12     | Politicized Identities and Psychological Checkpoints                  | 63 |
| 5 | A Culturally Sensitive Working Relationship and Social Justice | 65 |
| 5.1      | Transference and Countertransference                                  | 66 |
| 5.2      | The Good Immigrant                                                    | 66 |
| 5.3      | Intercultural–Intracultural Conflict and Power Imbalances             | 68 |
| 5.4      | Policing Your Own People                                              | 69 |
| 5.5      | Cultural Humility                                                     | 69 |
| 5.6      | Social Justice Through Decentering Whiteness                          | 70 |
| 5.7      | Social Justice Globally                                               | 71 |
| 5.8      | Giving Up Power                                                       | 74 |
| 6 | Common Themes                                                  | 76 |
| 6.1      | Tips to Consider                                                      | 77 |
| 6.1.1    | Professionalism and Self-Disclosure                                   | 77 |
| 6.2      | Collectivism Versus Individualism & Family Relationships              | 78 |
| 6.3      | Religion                                                              | 79 |
| 6.4      | Gender and Female Empowerment                                         | 81 |
| 6.5      | The Pressure to Assimilate                                            | 82 |
| 6.6      | Summary                                                               | 82 |
| 7 | Beyond the Therapy Room                                        | 84 |
| 7.1      | Friendship Circles and Getting the Inside Joke                        | 85 |
| 7.2      | Allyship/Co-Conspiratorship                                           | 86 |
| 7.3      | Professional Roles and Boundaries                                     | 86 |
| 7.4      | The White Savior                                                      | 87 |
| 7.5      | Jane Elliott                                                          | 89 |
| 7.6      | Getting Your Hands Dirty                                              | 90 |
| 7.7      | Racism in Police Officers                                             | 91 |
| 7.8      | Conclusion                                                            | 92 |

8      Further Reading ..... 93

9      References ..... 94

10    Appendix: Tools and Resources ..... 101