

Contents

Introduction — 1

Appendix — 22

Reception History of the Brantshpigl — 22

Editions of the Brantshpigl — 22

Preface [1b] — 29

Introduction [2a] — 30

Chapter 1 [3a]

In this chapter the usefulness of this book is explained. — 33

Chapter 2 [9a]

This chapter explains why I am doing what follows. — 44

Chapter 3 [12b]

This chapter shows why I wrote it in Yiddish. — 51

Chapter 4 [13b]

This chapter shows the usefulness that comes from the speech of people. — 53

Chapter 5 [14a]

This chapter explains the difference between the wise one and the fool. — 55

Chapter 6 [16a]

This chapter explains that the righteous person is called wise and the wicked one a fool. — 59

Chapter 7 [19a]

This chapter explains what a good wife or an evil wife is. — 64

Chapter 8 [23b]

This chapter explains what good comes from a good wife and the evil from an evil wife. — 73

Chapter 9 [28b]

This chapter explains the difference between the first wife and the second one. — 82

Chapter 10 [29b]

This chapter explains what a good wife is obligated to do for her husband. — 84

Chapter 11 [34a]

This chapter explains how it happens that a righteous man has an evil wife, and the evildoer a pious wife. — 93

Chapter 12 [35a]

This chapter explains that women, with much talk, can talk into eternal life. — 95

Chapter 13 [37b]

This chapter explains all the commandments that a woman is obligated to fulfill or is exempt from them. — 100

Chapter 14 [39b]

This chapter explains how the wife takes wisdom to her husband for the good of her husband. — 104

Chapter 15 [40a]

This chapter explains what the women are obligated to fulfill among the commandments. — 106

Chapter 16 [43b]

This chapter explains that each person should be modest and chaste. — 113

Chapter 17 [56b]

This chapter explains how the modest woman behaves at home. — 137

Chapter 18 [64a]

This chapter explains how she behaves with a servant at home. — 151

Chapter 19 [69a]

This chapter explains how one deals with meat in all things. — 161

Chapter 20 [71a]

This chapter explains that one must spend a proper amount for the household, not too much and not too little. — 164

Chapter 21 [72a]

This chapter explains that one should not habitually be in his friend's house. — 166

Chapter 22 [73a]

This chapter explains that one should not make enemies with people. — 168

Chapter 23 [76a]

This chapter explains how one should relate to people and not be arrogant. — 174

Chapter 24 [78b]

This chapter explains that one should not rejoice when bad things happen to his friend. — 179

Chapter 25 [80b]

This chapter explains that each person should allow himself to be satisfied with what God, blessed be He, gives him. — 183

Chapter 26 [82a]

This chapter explains that one should not be greedy. — 186

Chapter 27 [83a]

This chapter explains that one should say to all things, "this too is for good." — 189

Chapter 28 [85b]

This chapter explains that everything that happens to the person, one should not protest to God, blessed be He, or murmur. — 193

Chapter 29 [86b]

This chapter explains that one must be humble. — 196

Chapter 30 [94b]

This chapter explains the giving of charity and how it should be given. — 211

Chapter 31 [105a]

This chapter explains the great mitzvah of hospitality and how to fulfill it. — 230

Chapter 32 [112a]

This chapter explains the great mitzvah of recompensing people for kindness. — 244

Chapter 33 [114b]

This chapter explains how one should behave with father and mother. — 249

Chapter 34 [122a]

This chapter explains the mitzvah of helping the bride under the Huppah. — 263

Chapter 35 [124b]

This chapter explains how a woman behaves when she has her time. — 268

Chapter 36 [132b]

This chapter explains [the concept] of Hallah. — 284

Chapter 37 [133b]

This chapter explains that one must light lights Friday at the beginning of the Sabbath. — 286

Chapter 38 [134b]

This chapter explains that when one goes to bed, how one should be modest in bed. — 288

Chapter 39 [139b]

This chapter explains that one should wake up before dawn. — 298

Chapter 40 [145a]

This chapter explains that before one goes to the synagogue one should go to the toilet, and how one behaves with this. — 308

Chapter 41 [147a]

This chapter explains that one goes to the synagogue and prays, and how one behaves in the synagogue, morning afternoon and evening. — 312

Chapter 42 [154b]

This chapter explains how one should behave when he leaves the synagogue. — 326

Chapter 43 [156a]

This chapter explains how one should behave at the table. — 330

Chapter 44 [165a]

This chapter explains that one should not make celebratory meals that are not needed at any time, these are called optional celebratory meals. — 345

Chapter 45 [167a]

This chapter explains that the person deals with his business accounts after the meal. — 349

Chapter 46 [169b] This chapter explains how one should raise the children for good. — 354

Chapter 47 [181a]

This chapter explains that one should ritually immerse utensils. — 374

Chapter 48 [181a]

This chapter explains that everyone is obligated to have in the house, zizit yarn, thread, and a needle. — 375

Chapter 49 [183a]

This chapter explains that one should not get angry. — 379

Chapter 50 [185b]

This chapter explains that no person should be envied for any reason. — 384

Chapter 51 [188a]

This chapter explains that one should not deceive anyone. — 388

Chapter 52 [189b]

This chapter explains that one is not allowed to engage in flattery to any person. — 392

Chapter 53 [190b]

This chapter explains that one should not take revenge and not bear a grudge against his friend. — 394

Chapter 54 [191b]

This chapter explains that one should not mock anyone. — 396

Chapter 55 [194a]

This chapter explains that one should not gossip. — 401

Chapter 56 [199b]

This chapter explains that one should not tell lies. — 411

Chapter 57 [201b]

This chapter explains that one should not swear. — 415

Chapter 58 [206a]

This chapter explains that one should not curse or insult. — 423

Chapter 59 [210a]

This chapter explains that a woman is not allowed to dress in male clothes. — 430

Chapter 60 [210a]

This chapter explains that one is not allowed to steal or rob. — 431

Chapter 61 [212a]

This chapter explains that one should not murder. — 434

Chapter 62 [212a]

This chapter explains that one should not be unchaste. — 435

Chapter 63 [212b]

This chapter explains that it is forbidden to give false testimony. — 436

Chapter 64 [212b]

This chapter explains that one is not allowed to take interest from Jews. — 437

Chapter 65 [213a]

This chapter explains that when a Jew loses something, one should not hide oneself from it, and one should return it to him. — 438

Chapter 66 [213b]

This chapter explains that one should have correct weights and proper measures. — 439

Chapter 67 [214a]

This chapter explains that one is not allowed to drink the wine of non-Jews. — 441

Chapter 68 [215b]

This chapter explains that one is not allowed to engage in witchcraft. — 444

Chapter 69 [216b]

This chapter explains how one should repent. — 447

Chapter 70 [226b]

This chapter explains that one should fulfill all the commandments quickly and vigorously. — 465

Chapter 71 [227a]

This chapter explains that one should fulfill all the commandments honestly. — 467

Chapter 72 [228a]

This chapter explains that when one fulfills many commandments, they should not boast about it. — 470

Chapter 73 [229b]

This chapter explains that the commandments one fulfills with money, the money should be honestly acquired. — 473

Chapter 74 [230a]

This chapter explains that one should visit sick people and do what is good for them. — 475

Chapter 75 [231b]

This chapter explains that one should accompany the dead to their grave. — 478

Chapter 76 [232b]

This chapter explains that one should comfort those who mourn. — 480

Brantshpigl Bibliography — 483

Index of Sources — 487