

Summary of Contents

About this Book (Ralf Michaels)	V
Foreword (Herbert Kronke)	IX
Table of Contents	XVII
Abbreviations	XXV

Introduction	1
--------------------	---

Part I: Foundations	5
---------------------------	---

I. Concept	5
II. Movers of Legal Unification	49
III. Obstacles to Legal Unification	88

Part II: Framework and Types of Uniform Law	99
---	----

IV. Actors Involved in Legal Unification	99
V. Forms, Extent and Scope of Legal Unification	166

Part III: Uniform Law and Municipal Law	199
---	-----

VI. The Integration of Uniform Law Conventions into Municipal Law ...	201
VII. The Mutual Influence on Substance	226
VIII. Uniform Law and Private International Law	268

Part IV: Binding Unification – Treaties	281
---	-----

IX. Features of a Uniform Law Convention under Treaty Law	282
X. Revision and Conflicts of Conventions	333

Part V: Non-Binding Unification.....	361
XI. Model Laws and Legislative Guides.....	361
XII. Principles – Restatements.....	384
 Addendum I: Intended Part of the Table of Contents:
Unwritten Sections.....	411
Addendum II: Select Bibliography:
Jürgen Basedow on Uniform Law.....	413
Bibliography	417
Table of Statutory Materials	451
Table of Cases	501
Index	509

Table of Contents

About this Book (Ralf Michaels)	V
Foreword (Herbert Kronke)	IX
Summary of Contents	XIII
Abbreviations	XXIII

Introduction	1
--------------------	---

Part I: Foundations	5
---------------------------	---

I. Concept	5
1. Survey	5
2. Designations and conceptual approaches	6
a) Uniform law as treaty-based law	6
b) Transnational law	7
c) Uniformity	8
d) Law and programs	10
e) Unification and harmonisation	10
3. Private law, criminal law and public law	12
a) Uniform criminal law	12
b) “Pure” uniform public law	13
c) Mix of public and private uniform law	15
d) Remaining differences and conclusion	18
4. International and internal uniform law	19
a) A historical sketch of internal unification	19
b) Methods of internal unification in federal States	21
c) Links between internal and international unification of laws	24
5. Bilateral, multilateral and “club” unification	27
a) The choice of the appropriate form	27
b) Double taxation	28
c) Legal assistance	29
d) Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments	30
6. Regional and universal unification	32
a) The universal paradigm	32

- b) Europe34
 - c) Africa39
 - d) The Americas43
 - e) Asia47
- 7. Summary48
-
- II. Movers of Legal Unification..... 49*
 - 1. Idealistic approaches.....49
 - a) Legal diversity, legal thinking and the notion of law49
 - b) The political embeddedness of law and its unification50
 - 2. An economic approach.....52
 - a) On costs and benefits in general52
 - b) The costs of legal diversity53
 - c) The costs of legal unification.....54
 - d) The benefits of uniform law and their relative weight.....55
 - 3. A pragmatic approach: pursuit of legal certainty56
 - a) Legal uncertainty arising from the divergence of laws.....56
 - b) Subjects of unification.....57
 - c) Further considerations promoting unification58
 - 4. Globalisation.....59
 - a) Early history59
 - b) Development prior to globalisation.....60
 - c) The first phase of globalisation.....61
 - d) The second phase of globalisation63
 - e) Indicators of globalisation65
 - f) Effects on legal unification.....68
 - 5. Political endorsement.....76
 - a) Quasi-notarial function of States77
 - b) Policy-determining function78
 - c) Strategic function80
 - d) Institutionalising function.....83
 - 6. Unification and integration as side-effects85
 - a) Substantive policy objectives and the approximation of laws85
 - b) Restoring the balance between the Global North and the Global South86
-
- III. Obstacles to Legal Unification 88*
 - 1. Costs.....88
 - a) Costs of duplication.....88
 - b) Costs of non-innovation.....89
 - 2. Routine and the conflicts approach90
 - 3. Political divergencies92

4. The prospect of petrification	93
5. The complex application of uniform law.....	95
a) The risk of divergent interpretation	95
b) Uncertainties about the impact of treaty law	97

Part II: Framework and Types of Uniform Law..... 99

IV. Actors Involved in Legal Unification 99

1. States	99
a) The transformation of the universe of States.....	99
b) State succession in respect of treaties	101
c) Non-recognised States	105
d) Unfit States.....	108
e) Conclusion	109
2. Intergovernmental organisations	109
a) Survey, role and classification	109
b) UNCITRAL.....	112
c) UNCTAD	115
d) UNIDROIT	117
e) Hague Conference on Private International Law.....	118
f) Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).....	122
g) International Labour Organisation (ILO)	124
h) International Maritime Organisation (IMO).....	126
i) International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO).....	129
j) World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO).....	130
k) United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO).....	133
l) Intergovernmental organisations for carriage by rail (OTIF and OSJD).....	135
m) International Commission on Civil Status (CIEC)	137
n) Other vertical organisations.....	139
3. Private organisations.....	140
a) Non-governmental organisations (NGOs).....	140
b) Institut de Droit international.....	142
c) International Law Association	144
d) International Chamber of Commerce.....	147
e) Comité Maritime International (CMI).....	149
f) Baltic and International Maritime Conference (BIMCO).....	150
g) International Air Transport Association (IATA).....	152

- h) Fédération international des associations des transitaires e assimilés (FIATA)..... 153
 - i) Fédération Internationale des Ingénieurs-Conseils (FIDIC) – International Federation of Consulting Engineers..... 154
 - j) International Accounting Standards Board (IFRS Foundation)..... 156
 - k) International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA)..... 158
 - l) Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) 160
- 4. Summary: Liaison and coordination..... 163
 - a) Summary and conclusion..... 163
 - b) Liaison and coordination 165
- V. Forms, Extent and Scope of Legal Unification 166
 - 1. Prototypes of legal unification 166
 - a) Intergovernmental unification..... 166
 - b) Supranational unification..... 168
 - c) Private unification 170
 - d) Soft unification..... 172
 - e) Mixed forms 175
 - 2. The extent of unification..... 175
 - a) Negative harmonisation..... 176
 - b) Partial/incomplete harmonisation 179
 - c) Minimum harmonisation 184
 - 3. The scope of unification..... 188
 - a) Uniform laws..... 188
 - b) Unification for international fact situations..... 192
 - c) The trend toward uniform laws..... 196
- Part III: Uniform Law and Municipal Law 199
 - VI. The Integration of Uniform Law Conventions into Municipal Law 201
 - 1. Monistic and dualistic approaches..... 201
 - 2. Entry into force of a convention on the international plane 203
 - a) Convention clauses..... 203
 - b) Internal conditions of a State’s adherence..... 208
 - 3. Self-execution and direct applicability 211
 - a) The suitability of a treaty for direct application – criteria 212
 - b) Assessment by national courts 214
 - c) Controversial assessments 215

d) Mixed conventions	216
e) National incorporation measures	217
4. The status of incorporated conventions in municipal law	221
a) Consistent interpretation	222
b) Hierarchy	224
c) Human rights conventions	225
VII. The Mutual Influence on Substance	226
1. Unification: The process and the interests involved	227
a) The unification process	227
b) Interests involved	228
c) Creativity	229
2. The impact of national law on uniform law	229
a) Sales law	229
b) Land transport	232
c) Intellectual property	236
d) Conclusion	246
3. The impact of uniform law on national law	247
a) Implementation of model laws	247
b) The extension of conventions outside their scope	253
4. The self-reproduction of uniform law	262
a) Generational sequence of the uniform law instruments	263
b) Interaction of international organisations	264
5. Conclusion: The fading role of national law	267
VIII. Uniform Law and Private International Law	268
1. On methodology: how to deal with cross-border cases	268
2. Uniform law and private international law as rivals	269
a) Interdependence of scope rules and conflict rules	269
b) Overlap of uniform law and private international law	270
3. Private international law as a supplement of uniform substantive law	273
a) Open references	273
b) Uniform conflict rules: The lex fori	274
c) Topical uniform conflict rules	277
d) Conclusion	279

Part IV: Binding Unification – Treaties	281
IX. Features of a Uniform Law Convention under Treaty Law	282
1. General Aspects of the Vienna Convention on the law of treaties	283
a) Limitations and general acceptance	283
b) International courts and tribunals.....	285
c) National courts of contracting States	289
d) National courts of non-contracting States	293
2. The stage of conclusion of uniform law conventions.....	296
a) Course of events prior to adoption	296
b) The conclusion “within” and “under the auspices of” an organisation	296
c) The late occurrence of legal effects	299
3. Declarations	300
a) General aspects of interpretative declarations	301
b) Declarations of territorial extension.....	302
c) Scope-related declarations	303
d) Declarations lodged by the European Union	305
e) Political declarations	305
f) “Disguised reservations”	307
g) Conclusion	309
4. Reservations	309
a) Concept and development.....	309
b) Limits of permissibility	312
c) Non-reciprocal effects of reservations	314
d) Reciprocal effects of reservations	315
e) Withdrawal of reservations.....	317
f) Severability	321
5. The stage of performance.....	323
a) Survey and the role of the Vienna Convention.....	323
b) Fundamental change of circumstances.....	324
c) The effect on treaties of armed conflicts.....	327
6. Termination	331
X. Revision and Conflicts of Conventions	333
1. Survey	333
a) The need for reform and its legal tools	333
b) Modernisation vs. uniformity of the law	334
2. Successive conventions.....	336
a) The Vienna Convention.....	336
b) Conflict clauses	339

c) Replacement clauses.....	341
d) Priority clauses.....	343
e) Subordination clauses.....	344
f) Maximum effectiveness clauses.....	346
g) Conclusion	348
3. Amendments.....	349
a) Modification of treaties under the Vienna Convention.....	349
b) Revision clauses in individual conventions.....	350
c) Accelerated amendment procedures.....	352
d) “Closing clauses”	355
e) “Pulling clauses”	356
4. Conclusion on uniform law and treaty law	357
a) Frictions between legal unification and treaty law	357
b) Implications for future legal unification.....	359

Part V: Non-Binding Unification..... 361

XI. Model Laws and Legislative Guides 361

1. Concepts and manifestations.....	361
a) Statute-like drafting and legislative guides	362
b) Addressees: States	364
c) Recommendations	367
d) The goal of unification	368
e) Authoring organisations	370
2. Use and utility of model laws.....	371
a) Advantages of model laws.....	372
b) Disadvantages of model laws.....	374
3. Subject-specific use of model laws and treaties.....	376
a) Instruments of cooperation	377
b) Instruments ensuring reciprocity.....	378
c) Instruments on substantive law	380
4. Conclusion.....	383

XII. Principles – Restatements..... 384

1. Concept and manifestations	384
a) Difficulty of definition	384
b) Functions.....	385
c) Restatements – from US origin to worldwide use	386
2. Use and utility of sets of principles	390
a) Harmonisation of legal thought, of legal practice and of the law ...	390
b) Principles as contractual arrangements – the PICC and HP.....	392

c) Principles as a part of lex mercatoria.....394

d) Principles as a reserve legal order.....397

e) Principles as interpretative aids for uniform law Conventions400

f) Principles as interpretative aids for domestic law407

g) Principles as model laws.....408

3. Conclusion: The trend towards “depositivation”409

Addendum I: Intended Part of the Table of Contents:
 Unwritten Sections.....411

Addendum II: Select Bibliography:
 Jürgen Basedow on Uniform Law413

Bibliography417

Table of Statutory Materials451

 International Treaties and Conventions452

 Instruments of International Organisations.....481

 Drafts, Proposals, Recommendations, Opinions, Reports and other Documents484

 National Legislation.....496

Table of Cases501

 International and Supranational Courts501

 National Courts.....504

Index509