

Table of Contents

Michael Gehler/Eleonora Guasconi/Francesco Pierini

Narrating Europe.

Speeches and Speakers on European Integration 1947–2022

9

Chapter I: Creating the first Communities and Departure for New Shores

Stefano Luconi

“A Few Remarks in Appreciation of the Honor and Perhaps a Little More”.

George C. Marshall’s Speech at Harvard University on 5 June 1947 43

Jürgen Elvert

“The Paris Agreements could usher in a New Era in the History of Europe”.

On Konrad Adenauer’s Government Statement of

15 December 1954

63

Jan van der Harst

Founder of the EU Common Market –.

The Beyen Memorandum of December 1952

77

Stefano Vicari

Les Discours de De Gaulle sur l’Europe entre Strategies Rhetoriques et Argumentatives

95

Maria Eleonora Guasconi

Aldo Moro’s Vision of Europe.

An Analysis of the Speech held at the Helsinki’s Final Conference,

30 July 1975

117

Chapter II: Europe in Times of Recession and New Beginnings

Andreas Wilkens

«Nous n'avons pas de temps à perdre.».

Willy Brandt devant le Parlement européen à Strasbourg,

13 novembre 1973

131

Mathias Haeussler

A Visionary Crisis Manager?

Helmut Schmidt's 1976 Speech at the Foreign Affairs Club in

London

147

N. Piers Ludlow

Restoring Britain to the Heart of Europe – and Acquiring a Key Ally too.

John Major's March 11, 1991 Bonn Speech

165

Chapter III: Europe in Southern, Central and Eastern Perspectives

Peter A. Zervakis

Konstantinos Karamanlis' Vision of a United Europe, as Outlined in his Acceptance Speech for the Charlemagne Prize on 4 May 1978

185

Alice Cunha and David Castaño

Mário Soares' Visions of European Integration

211

Deborah Cuccia

Pedro Sánchez: Debate on the Future of Europe

239

Chapter IV: The Fall of the Iron Curtain: the Opening of Central and Eastern Europe

Ladislav Cabada

“Without dreaming about better Europe we will never build up better Europe.”

Václav Havel' Speech in the Council of Europe in May 1990

265

Kinga Anna Gajda The concept of the return to Europe of Tadeusz Mazowiecki's government and the idea of unification of Western and Eastern Europe	289
Michael Gehler Hungary's Role in a free Europe. József Antall's Speech to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Nuremberg, 24 June 1992	311
Boglárka Koller "The Interpreter for Europe". Speech of Árpád Göncz, President of Hungary (1990–2000) at the Conference of "New Perspectives for Europe" in Marburg at the Philipps-Universität, 28 May 2001	331
Šárka Waisová Zuzana Čaputová: Slovak President as a symbol of a "better" Central Europe	345
Chapter V: European Reactions of Multiple Crises: Speeches in Times of Growing Insecurities and the Ukrainian War
Francesco Pierini From 'We have the character of an island nation' to 'Brits don't quit'. Cameron's European discourse (2013–2016)	365
Michelangelo Conoscenti "To the People of Scotland, thank you, but I'll pass on". Sturgeon's Discourse in Times of Crisis	383
Beatrice Benocci Olaf Scholz, German Europeanism and Pacifism facing Global Challenges. The War in Ukraine and EU Decision to Support the Country Militarily	401
Daniela Preda Pape François et le défi de l'Europe «grand-mère»	427

Lara Piccardo
The Zelenski Case	441
List of Contributors	457
Register of Persons	463