

Table of Contents

Introduction — 1

Nadine Bowers Du Toit

Health and Gender: key intersections in African 'Faith and Development' discourse — 7

Gert G. Wagner

Response:* Income, poverty and well-being in Germany — 25

Anita Cloete

Resources for Theological Education in Africa — 31

Martina Kumlehn

Response:* From awareness of plurality to conscious dealing with heterogeneity: Religious Education as hermeneutics of religious communication in East Germany — 45

Daniël Louw

'Verbing God' within the dynamics of 'Lived Religion'. 'Sympathetic Rites of Passage' in a Practical Theological approach to the complexity of everyday life — 51

Anne Steinmeier

Response:* Verbing the infiniscience of the creatio Dei: "We truly live in figures" — 67

Yolanda Dreyer

Material poverty and the poverty of excess: Meaning-making as healing in an era of supermodernism — 75

Simon Peng-Keller

Response:* The Christian vocation to healing and models of spiritual care — 89

Christian Polke

Life's beginning and life's end: An essay on natality and mortality — 97

Ian Nell

Death as new birth: A response to Christian Polke's essay: "Life's beginning and life's end: An essay on natality and mortality" — 111

Johann-Albrecht Meylahn

Medienwandel / Transformations of media — 117

Kristin Merle

Response: Medienwandel / Transformation of media — 131

Alexander Kenneth-Nagel

Migration and interculturality — 139

R. Simangaliso Kumalo

Response: Ubuntu as an asset for the church in the context of migration and interculturality: a response to Alexander-Kenneth Nagel's paper — 157

D. Xolile Simon

Religious communities and transforming witnesses in the future of Christian communities — 173

Thomas Schlag

Response: Dealing theologically with plurality: Contextual and global challenges for a public Practical Theology — 185

Hans-Günter Heimbrock

Religion and knowledge — 193

Nico Koopman

Response: Theological knowledge and the quest for healthy religious beliefs and practices — 209

Robert Vosloo

Time, memory and the search for a responsible engagement with the past — 215

Albrecht Grözinger

Response: Remembrance cultures in the plural — 227

Elisabeth Gräb-Schmidt

Society and community – On the relationship between politics and religion serving our shared life in society — 233

Jaco Dreyer

Response:* Religion, politics and the desire to live together in diverse societies and communities: reflections from South Africa — 249

Authors and editors — 255