

Table of Contents

How to Navigate this Book: A Guide for Academics & Hip Hop Practitioners.....	5
1 Introduction: “Where We’re at!”	9
1.1 What is Hip Hop? Definitions, Controversies and the Central Research Question.....	11
1.2 Research Interests	14
2 Points of Departure: Theory, Research Questions & Reflections on my Travels.....	17
2.1 First Point of Departure: Literature Review, Hip Hop Scholarship, and Education.....	18
2.2 Second Point of Departure: Ethnographic Methods and Research Stance.....	29
2.4 Fourth Point of Departure: Five Theoretical Frameworks for Analyzing the Findings	39
3 Senegalese Hip Hop and Class or: Why is Hip Hop Galsen so Political? 51
3.1 On Socio-economic Context: From the Colonial Past to Neo-colonial Exploitation	53
3.2 1988 – Hip Hop’s Arrival: A Class and Cultural Analysis.....	55
3.3 Power Play, Getting Paid and Singing for or Against Political/ Religious Leaders	59
3.4 From “Boul Falé” to “Politiciens” and the “Alternance”: Hip Hop Raises a Political Voice.....	60
4 “We Be Buildin’”: Hip Hop Organizations and the Non-Profit Sector... 65
4.0 A Look into a Neighborhood-Based Cultural Center and the Field of HHC Non-Profits.....	65
4.1 Type I: The Neighborhood-Based Cultural Center/Hub	70

4.2 Type II: The Pedagogic Service Provider.....	90
4.3 Type III: The One-Element-Based Organization for Professionalization	102
4.4 Type IV: The Federation	107
4.5 Field Conclusions: Non-Profit Funding, Competition, Repression, & Social Movements	108
5 “Gettin’ Busy”: Practice, Space, & Relationships in Hip Hop Classrooms.....	115
5.1 On Context: Public Schools, Inequality and a Dialogical Solution?	116
5.2. Show and Prove: On the Importance of a Captivating Entrance to the Learning Process.....	119
5.3 The Cypher as Pedagogical Space, Practice, & Tool for Relationship- Building in Classrooms	129
5.4. Each One Mentor One: How Hip Hop-Style Mentoring Enters Classrooms.....	141
6 “Pushin’ the Message in Classrooms”: Values, Curricula, & Final Performances	161
6.1 Conservation vs. Innovations: How Foundation & Political Messages Shape Hip Hop Teaching.....	162
6.2. Flippin’ the Script: How to Formalize HH Knowledge via Integrated/ Artistic Curricula.....	177
6.3 Getting Political: Social Justice Hip Hop Curricula and Social Movements ..	185
6.4 Born in the Bronx: Hip Hop History Curriculum and How to Navigate its Contradictions.....	196
6.5 Show and Prove II: Final Performances or “the Proverbial Dog and Pony Show”	209
6.6 Conclusion for Classroom-Based Hip Hop Learning (Chapters 5 & 6):.....	222
7 “Back on the Scene”: Scene-Specific Teaching, Learning, and Organizing	225
7.1 Battles, Shows & Cypher Jams: Scene-Based Performance to Structure Learning Processes	226
7.2 “Once we Have Togetherness”: Open Spaces for Peer-to-Peer Learning and Exchange	244
7.3. Scene-Based Mentoring: Stylistic Legacies, Professionalization, and Political Education.....	252

7.4. Professionalization and Self-Representation via Federations and Non-Hip Hop Skills	264
8 “Y’en a Marre”: Public Pedagogy via Rap & Social Movement Actions	281
8.1 A Movement’s Cognitive Praxis, its Lifecycle, and Musicians as Intellectuals	283
8.2 Y’en a Marre – A Rap-Based Social Movement and its Pedagogy of/in Action	285
8.3 On Strategy: Between the “Sentinel of Democracy,” Producing “A new Sankara,” or Entering Parliament.....	297
8.4 Phase 4 Movement Evolution – Internationalization, NGOization and Project Focus.....	301
8.5 Government Attempts at Cooptation and Repression / The Conflicts of Running a Non-Profit Versus Mobilizing the Masses	309
8.6 Movement-Oriented Hip Hop Journalism, or How to Rap the News	327
9 Discussion: Hip Hop’s Organic Pedagogues – between Non-Profits & Movements	333
9.1 Transforming Classrooms, Learners, and Communities	333
9.2 Organic Pedagogues, Intellectuals, and Hip Hop’s Translation into Classroom Settings	337
9.3 Cultural Organizers, their Hip Hop Organizations, and the Scene	340
9.4 (Male) Hip Hop Authority, Gender, and Abuse	344
9.5 Building Hip Hop Organizations and “Winning Space”	348
9.6 Hegemonic Boundaries and NGOization: Who Owns the Means of Cultural Production?	351
9.7 Y’en a Marre and the Attempt at Societal Transformation	355
9.8 Historically Zooming Out for Transformation and Institutional Solutions...	358
9.9 Outlook.....	360
10 Acknowledgements & Shout-Outs.....	361
11 List of References	365