Contents

Acknowledgements ix

List of abbreviations xii

Foreword by Jennifer Wies xvi

1 Introduction 1

1.1 Conceptualisations of gender and violence 7

1.2 Current state of research on gender and violence against women in Namibia 31

1.3 Field research on gender and violence: methodologies, challenges and responses 45

1.4 Research site of small town Outjo: unequal living realities 69

2 Gender and violence in Namibia before Independence 84

2.1 German colonial era: African and European gender concepts, Christianisation and establishing a system of violence 85

2.2 South African colonial era: continuation and expansion of a violent system 95

2.3 Summary 125

3 Aspirations towards equality and challenges since Independence 131

3.1 Constitution-making and political awareness of women's situation 131

3.2 National Gender Policies, campaigns and new legislation to eliminate discrimination against women and to enforce gender equality 141

3.3 Violence against women: interventions and challenges 150

3.4 Summary 166

4 Uncertainties in times of change 169

4.1 Poverty, economic inequality and their ramifications 169

4.2 Feeling unsafe: fears, mistrust, and palliating a difficult past 177

4.3 "Problems with the youth" – inter-generational relations in transition and normalisation of violence 184

4.4 Summary 198

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1327976234

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

5 Changing and ambiguous gender constructions 200
5.1 Changes in static gender perceptions 200
5.2 Gender relations and challenges in heterosexual intimate relationships 222
5.3 Summary 240

6 Lack of respect? – Perspectives of males 242
6.1 Masculinity constructions and relations with women: dominance and emerging alternatives 244
6.2 Males and violence 275
6.3 Summary 302

7 Women's empowerment? – Perspectives of females 305
7.1 Femininity constructions and relations with men: subordination and emerging alternatives 307
7.2 Females and violence 343
7.3 Summary 354

8 Males violate females: violated equality 357
8.1 Intimidated and misunderstood: females' narratives of violence 357
8.2 Attitudes towards violated females: victim blaming, hierarchies of rape and normalisation of violence against women 395
8.3 Effects of violence against females in the intimate sphere 402
8.4 Summary 411

9 Conclusions: Gender (in-)equality struggles 415
9.1 Research results and interpretations 415
9.2 Future perspectives 431

Epilogue 444

References 445

Transcription symbols 476

Overview of research participants 476

Index 480