
Contents

- 1 Introduction 1
 - 1.1 The Problem of Women Career Research in the MENA Region 1
 - 1.2 Research Objectives and Theoretical Framework 3
 - 1.3 Thesis Structure 5

- 2 Gender Inequality in the Workplace: Concepts and Perspectives ... 7
 - 2.1 Gender Roles and Stereotypes 10
 - 2.2 The Gendered Division of the Labour Market 16
 - 2.3 Theories Explaining Gender Inequality at Work 23
 - 2.4 Approaches to Promote Gender Equality at Work 25
 - 2.5 Gender Regimes and their Impact on Equality 29
 - 2.6 Understanding Gender Inequality at Work in the MENA Context 32

- 3 Theoretical Framework, a Multi-level Approach 37
 - 3.1 Key Concepts of Bourdieu’s Theory of Practice 38
 - 3.1.1 Field, a Meta-concept of Bourdieu’s Work 38
 - 3.1.2 Capital, a Door Opener for Social Fields 39
 - 3.1.3 Habitus, a Sense of One’s Place 42
 - 3.1.4 Habitus and Masculine Domination 45
 - 3.2 Bourdieu’s Theory of Practice in Career Research Context 47
 - 3.3 Using Bourdieu’s Framework to Explore Female Career Development 49

4	Setting the Moroccan Context	55
4.1	Country Background	55
4.2	Socio-cultural Context: Reconstructing Sources of Power in Morocco	57
4.2.1	Morocco's Historical Background	57
4.2.2	Multilingualism	58
4.2.3	Orality	60
4.2.4	Religion of Islam	61
4.2.5	Social Organization and Economic Status	62
4.3	Position of Women in the Moroccan Society	65
4.3.1	Women Legal Status and its Development	65
4.3.2	Women Economic Participation	67
4.4	The Education System in Morocco	69
4.5	The Business Field and Managerial Practices	74
4.5.1	Business Structures in Morocco	74
4.5.2	Organizational Culture and Practices	75
4.6	Scope of this Research	80
5	Research Design	83
5.1	Research Paradigm: Interpretivist Positioning	83
5.2	Methodology and Methods	84
5.2.1	Semi-structured Interviews as Data Collection Method	85
5.2.2	Purposeful Sampling Strategy for Choosing Participants	87
5.2.3	The Interview Process	90
5.2.4	Qualitative Content Analysis, as Analysis Method	94
5.3	Quality Criteria of the Research Project	98
5.4	Ethical Considerations	101
6	Empirical Results	103
6.1	Description of the Sample	103
6.2	Career Motivations: A Plan for Capital Portfolio	105
6.2.1	Motivations for Education	105
6.2.2	Motivations for Choosing a Professional Orientation	110
6.3	Work Experiences: What do Participants say about their Workplace	114
6.3.1	Barriers Encountered in Male-dominated Workplaces	115

6.3.2	Barriers Encountered in Gender-balanced Workplaces	123
6.3.3	Reactions to Barriers in Male-dominated Workplaces ...	129
6.3.4	Reactions to Barriers in Gender-balanced Workplaces	132
6.3.5	What Interviewees Expect from their Workplace	134
6.4	Factors Outside of the Workplace Impacting Career Path	136
6.4.1	Own Perception and Feelings about Traditional Gender Roles	136
6.4.2	Husband's Support	138
6.4.3	Child Birth	140
6.4.4	Paid Domestic Help	141
6.4.5	Informal Network, a Career Booster	142
6.5	Decisions about Career and Work	145
6.5.1	Career Advancement Achieved	145
6.5.2	Career Advancement Postponed	146
6.6	Summarising the Results	148
7	Discussions and Conclusion	151
7.1	Discussing and Confronting Findings with Existing Literature	151
7.1.1	Gendered and Classed Capital Development	152
7.1.2	Macro-societal Factors Impacting Career Paths	155
7.1.3	Organizations as Mini-patriarchies: the Prevalence of Gender Role Bias	165
7.1.4	Work and Career Practice: Habitus of Female Agents ...	171
7.1.5	Contrasting Female with Male Participants	179
7.1.6	Career Decisions: Gender Capital and Female Strategies	181
7.2	Contribution of the Research	187
7.3	Reflections on the Research Journey	189
7.4	Limitations	190
7.5	Recommendations for Future Research	192
7.6	Conclusion	193
	References	195