

Contents

Preface and acknowledgments 5

Introduction to SEEPRO-3 11

 SEEPRO-3 – project with a history 11

 SEEPRO-3 – background, aims and procedures 12

Part I

Contextualising the ECEC workforce15

1 Conceptual framework – a 'science of difference' 17

2 Three ECEC system types: unitary, part-integrated, bi-sectoral..... 19

3 Key policy measures since the previous SEEPRO study 23

 3.1 Legislative changes 23

 3.2 Curricular reforms..... 26

 3.3 Measures to improve access to ECEC..... 28

 3.4 Personnel-related measures 29

4 Contextual Framework..... 31

 4.1 Legal entitlement and compulsory enrolment in ECEC..... 31

 4.2 ECEC providers and main setting types..... 39

 4.3 Curricular frameworks – digital education..... 42

 4.4 Evaluation and assessment..... 46

 4.5 Inclusion and transitions 50

4.6 Working parents, parenting leave and post-leave entitlement to ECEC	53
---	----

Part II

The ECEC workforce	57
---------------------------------	-----------

5 Key pedagogical and specialist support staff.....	59
5.1 Core practitioners: minimum qualification requirements and professional profiles	59
5.2 Centre leaders in ECEC	67
5.3 Assistant co-workers	73
5.4 ECEC counsellors, supervisors and inspectors	76
5.5 Specialist support staff	80
5.6 Staff in ECEC settings by qualification and gender: an overview	82
6 Initial professional education of core practitioners.....	85
6.1 What competences do ECEC core practitioners need? Competence profiles in six countries	85
6.2 Curriculum in ECEC initial professional education: Six country examples	93
6.3 Field practice in the initial professional education of ECEC core practitioners.....	100
7 Alternative routes into the ECEC professions – lateral entry.....	105
8 Continuing professional development in the early childhood field.....	109
8.1 Legislation and regulatory frameworks.....	109
8.2 Providers and main forms of continuing professional development.....	110
8.3 Continuing professional development as an entitlement and a duty.....	111
8.4 Participation in continuing professional development measures as a requirement for career promotion.....	112

8.5	Current topics in CPD	113
8.6	Availability of continuing professional development for ECEC assistant co-workers	114
9	Newly qualified and newly appointed staff: Support measures in the workplace	115
 Part III
	Reform initiatives – workforce and ECEC system challenges	117
10	Staff-related policy initiatives and reform strategies	119
10.1	Initiatives to improve initial professional education	119
10.2	Strategies to improve working conditions and measures to combat staff shortages.....	120
10.3	Staff-related reforms as part of overall educational policy strategies	121
11	Staff-related and system-related challenges from a country expert perspective	123
11.1	Staff shortages.....	123
11.2	Staff to child ratios	123
11.3	Initial professional education of core practitioners	124
11.4	Continuing professional development opportunities for centre leaders, core practitioners and assistant co-workers	125
11.5	Integration at the ECEC system level	125
11.6	Equitable access to early childhood education and care settings	126
11.7	Further challenges from a country expert perspective	126
12	Summary and outlook	129
12.1	Contextual framework.....	129
12.2	Early childhood staff.....	131
12.3	Reform strategies – staff and system-related challenges.....	132
12.4	Outlook	134

References..... 135

About the authors..... 147

SEEPRO-3 Cooperation partners in 33 countries (2021–2024)..... 149

Glossary 151

Index 153