

Contents

INTRODUCTION

Synodality in Europe: Discerning Synodal Paths Together.....	1
Margit Eckholt
Synodality as a Modus Vivendi et Operandi of the Church and the Search for Successful Participation Structures	5
Franz-Josef Overbeck

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS

Finding the New Place of a Missionary and Synodal Church in Europe	11
Jens Van Rompaey
Synodality and Sacramentality Beyond Sacrality	27
Michael Quisinsky
Synodality and Democracy	53
Karlheinz Ruhstorfer
Synodality as a Democratization sui generis	65
Martin Kirschner
Religious Orders and Synodality	83
Thomas Eggensperger / Ulrich Engel
Synodal Insights from the Holy Spirit.....	101
Juan Pablo García Maestro

REGIONAL EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVES

The Synodal March in France.....	115
Marie-Jo Thiel
Synodality and Co-Responsibility.....	129
Fáinche Ryan
The Synod on Synodality in Slovakia and its Principles for Ecclesiogenesis..	145
Pavol Hrabovecký
Synodal Path and the Church in Croatia	159
Ana Thea Filipović / Branko Murić

Synodality – Theological and Ecclesial Perspectives from the Lithuanian Section of ESCT175
Ausra Vasiliauskaite / Benas Ulevičius

The Synodal Path of the Roman Catholic Church in Germany193
Margit Eckholt

The Synodal Path of Germany and the Church of the Czech Republic203
Michal Kaplánek

Community Discernment: A Path to Renewal215
Tiago Freitas

ECUMENICAL PERSPECTIVE

A “Blind Spot” of the Reformation?233
Nicole Grochowina

WORLD CHURCH PERSPECTIVES

Synodality: The Church at the Crossroads249
Katharina Ganz

The Heart of the Current Reception of the Ecclesiology of the People of God 257
Rafael Luciani

Synodality: A New Stage in the Reception of the Second Vatican Council277
Anne Béatrice Faye

List of Contributors.....285