

Contents

References, Citations, and Abbreviations	vii
Acknowledgements	xiii
Editors' Introduction.....	xv

I. Nietzschean Beginnings and Developments

Andrea Christian Bertino 'As with Bees?' Notes on Instinct and Language in Nietzsche and Herder	3
Maria João Mayer Branco Nietzsche on Metaphor, Musicality, and Style. From Language to the Life of the Drives.....	35

II. Dissolving an Opposition

Patrick Wotling What Language Do Drives Speak?	63
João Constâncio Instinct and Language in Nietzsche's Beyond Good and Evil	80
Chiara Piazzesi Greed and Love : Genealogy, Dissolution and Therapeutical Effects of a Linguistic Distinction in FW 14	117

III. Instinct, Language, and Philosophy

Scarlett Marton Afternoon Thoughts. Nietzsche and the Dogmatism of Philosophical Writing	167
Werner Stegmaier Fearless Findings. Instinct and Language in Book V of the Gay Science	185

IV. The Critique of Morality and the Affirmation of Life

Marta Faustino

Philosophy as a 'Misunderstanding of the Body' and the 'Great Health' of the New Philosophers 203

André Muniz Garcia

From the Nietzschean Interpretation of Philosophical Language to the Semiotics of Moral Phenomena: Thoughts on Beyond Good and Evil..... 219

Katia Hay

Zarathustra's Laughter or the Birth of Tragedy from the Experience of the Comic 243

Maria Filomena Molder

Stammering in a Strange Tongue: The Limits of Language in The Birth of Tragedy in the Light of Nietzsches 'Attempt
 At a Self-Criticism' 259

Contributors 280

Complete Bibliography..... 281

Name Index 291

Subject Index..... 292