Contents

Acknowledgments —— V

Valérie Schafer and Fred Pailler
A Multi-Layered and Interdisciplinary Approach to Online Virality and its Temporalities —— 1

Part 1: Expression and Genres

Maël Pégny
Is Virality a Digital Concept? —— 19

Gabriele Marino
The Biggest Meme. Harlem Shake Ten Years After —— 47

Julia Göke
History Makes Memes. Memes Make History —— 61

Eloy Santos Vieira and Adriana da Rosa Amaral
From "Nazaré Confusa" to the "Confused Blonde Lady": The Role of Brazilian "Zuera" as a Post-Mass Media Genre in Digital Culture —— 79

Part 2: Mobilisation and Engagement

Albin Wagener
Memes, Emotional Engagement and Politics —— 101

Justine Simon
Virality of #Chadolf #Kitler: Ambivalence in Chiaroscuro —— 121

Gastón Arce-Pradenas
Unexpected Politicians: The Viral Celebrities of Unrest —— 143

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1322451508

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Martin Lundqvist
Memetic Social Resilience? Analysing Memes about Political Violence in Present-Day Belfast, Northern Ireland — 173

Part 3: Circulation and Infrastructures

Nelly Quemener
Reactive Communities and Affective Intensities. A Methodological Proposal to Seize the Formation and Circulation of "Anti-System" Assertions on a YouTube Channel — 191

Virginie Julliard, Fred Pailler, Félix Alié and Victor Écrement
The Womb, the Banknote and the Trolley. Elements of French Anti-Gender Visual Culture — 207

Bruno Vétel
On the Move: Played Characters Circulations through Online Landscapes and Infrastructures — 227

Thibault Grison
Playing Hide and Seek with Algorithms in the "Gay TikTok": From Shadowbanning to Platform Affordances — 249

Authors — 269

Index — 273