PART A - STRATEGY

Chapter 1: Legal Questions.....	1
1.1 General comments.....	1
1.2 How to tackle the questions.....	2
1.2.1 Time management – understanding the question.....	2
1.2.2 Finding the answer	3
1.2.3 Writing the answer.....	4
1.3 Calculating time limits	6
1.3.1 Calculating time limits under the EPC	6
1.3.2 Calculating time limits under the PCT	9
1.4 Preserving the rights of an applicant, proprietor or opponent that have apparently been lost under the EPC	10
1.4.1 Was notification sent to the correct address?	10
1.4.2 Can the time limit be extended?.....	10
1.4.3 Is a grace period available?	10
1.4.4 Can further processing be applied?	10
1.4.5 Can re-establishment be applied?	11
1.4.6 Can proceedings be interrupted?	11
1.4.7 Can the good faith principle be invoked?	11
1.4.8 Can an appeal be filed?	11
1.4.9 Is conversion of a European patent application possible?	12
1.4.10 Can the failure to pay a fee on time be excused?	12
1.4.11 Can the late arrival of a document sent by postal services in good time be excused?.....	12
1.4.12 Can a new application be filed?	12
1.5 Preserving the rights of an applicant that have apparently been lost under the PCT	13
1.5.1 Can the time limit be extended?.....	13
1.5.2 Is a grace period available?	13
1.5.3 Can the late arrival of a document posted in good time be excused?....	13
1.5.4 Can a loss of rights be excused by a national/regional office?	13
1.5.5 Can the application be re-instated where the national phase is not entered on time?.....	14
1.6 Enlarged Board Decisions.....	14
1.7 Miscellaneous points of interest.....	41
1.7.1 Divisional applications	42
1.7.2 The prior art effects of a published European patent application.....	47
1.7.3 Renewal fees.....	52
1.7.4 Incorporation by reference.....	57
1.7.5 The filing of an application and its filing date.....	61
1.7.6 Filing of documents – Languages and fee reductions.....	61
1.7.7 Filing of documents – other considerations	66
1.7.8 The prohibition of reformatio in peius	69
1.7.9 The nature of opposition proceedings – in what way do they differ from grant proceedings?	72

1.7.10	The nature of appeal proceedings – in what way do they differ from first instance proceedings?	75
1.7.11	Entering the EPO regional phase with a Euro-PCT application	79
1.7.12	Interlocutory aspects of EPO procedure	86
1.8	Transitional provisions EPC1973/EPC2000.	89
1.9	Worked examples – Paper D1 2012	94
Chapter 2:	Legal Opinion	105
2.1	General comments.	105
2.2	How to tackle each question	107
2.2.1	Preparing a time line	107
2.2.2	Analysing the paper by considering the patentability of each invention ..	108
2.2.3	Points to consider when an application for an invention has been filed ...	109
2.2.4	Points to consider where an application for an invention has not been filed	110
2.2.5	What national rights are therefore obtainable by the client and might be used to keep competitors off the market?	111
2.2.6	What national rights are therefore obtainable by any competitor which might limit your client's commercial freedom?	111
2.2.7	Answering the paper	112
2.3	Relevant timeline events for European and Euro-PCT applications	112
2.3.1	Regular European patent application	112
2.3.2	European patent application filed via the PCT.	113
2.4	Aspects of US and Japanese patent law	114
2.5	Notes on claiming priority	115
2.5.1	Relevance of the Paris Convention to European and Euro-PCT applications.	115
2.5.2	The importance of naming the correct applicant	116
2.5.3	The importance of the “first filing”	116
2.5.4	The limited circumstances in which priority may be claimed from a second or subsequent filing	116
2.5.5	Illustrative examples of how priority works in relation to the first filing	117
2.5.6	Examples of questions relating to the claiming of priority from a first filing in the EQE	120
2.6	Worked example – Paper D 2012	121
2.6.1	First reading and initial thoughts	121
2.6.2	Generating a list of dates (Q1–3)	133
2.6.3	Chronological list of dates (Q1–3).	133
2.6.4	Expanded chronological list of dates (Q1–3)	134
2.6.5	Drawing up a timeline (Q1–3)	134
2.6.6	Analysis of patent rights (Q1–3)	136
2.6.7	Possible answer (Q1–3).	139
2.6.8	Possible answer (Q4).	142

PART B - THE EPC

Chapter 3:	The EPC and EPO	145
3.1	European patents	145
3.2	The European Patent Organisation	145
3.2.1	Foundation of the Organisation.	145
3.2.2	Structure of the Organisation.	145
3.2.3	Purpose of the Organisation.	145
3.3	The European Patent Office and its employees	146
3.3.1	Location of the European Patent Office and its sub-offices	146
3.3.2	President of the European Patent Office and his duties	146
3.3.3	Appointment of senior EPO employees	147
3.3.4	Employees not to disclose or make use of confidential information	147
3.3.5	Disputes between the Organisation and the employees of the European Patent Office	147

3.4	The departments of the European Patent Office	147
3.4.1	The departments entrusted with the procedure	147
3.4.2	Administrative structure of the EPO.	147
3.5	The Receiving Section	148
3.6	The Search Divisions	148
3.7	The Examining Divisions	148
3.8	The Opposition Divisions	150
3.9	The Legal Division	151
3.10	The Boards of Appeal and the Enlarged Board of Appeal	151
3.10.1	Composition of the Board of Appeal	151
3.10.2	Organisation of the Boards of Appeal	153
3.10.3	Enlarged Board of Appeal	153
3.10.4	Independence and exclusion of Board of Appeal members.	154
3.10.5	Adoption of Rules of Procedure by the Boards of Appeal and the Enlarged Board	154
3.10.6	Exclusion and objection	155
3.11	The Administrative Council	156
Chapter 4:	The Invention	157
4.1	What is not an invention for the purposes of the EPC?	157
4.1.1	Requirement for technical subject matter	157
4.1.2	Discoveries	157
4.1.3	Scientific theories and mathematical methods	157
4.1.4	Aesthetic creations	158
4.1.5	Scheme, rule or method for performing a mental act.	158
4.1.6	Scheme, rule or method for playing games	158
4.1.7	Scheme, rule or method for doing business	158
4.1.8	Computer programs	158
4.1.9	Presentation of information	159
4.2	What inventions are barred from patentability?	159
4.2.1	Morality exemption	159
4.2.2	Plant varieties	160
4.2.3	Animal varieties	161
4.2.4	Essentially biological processes	162
4.2.5	Method of treatment or diagnosis exclusion – general points	163
4.2.6	Method of treatment of the human or animal body by therapy	164
4.2.7	Method of treatment of the human or animal body by surgery	164
4.2.8	Diagnostic method practiced on the human or animal body	165
4.3	What is a patentable invention?	166
4.4	Which inventions are susceptible of industrial application?	166
4.5	Which inventions are new?	167
4.5.1	Definition of novelty	167
4.5.2	The state of the art includes earlier disclosures	167
4.5.3	The state of the art includes the contents of earlier European patent applications	167
4.5.4	Under what circumstances is something “made available to the public”?	169
4.5.5	Judging the content of what has been made available	169
4.5.6	Judging whether the content of what has been made available is prejudicial to novelty	170
4.5.7	First medical use	171
4.5.8	Second medical use	171
4.5.9	Second non-medical use	173
4.5.10	Abusive disclosure exemption	173
4.5.11	Exhibition exemption	174
4.5.12	Novelty of selection inventions	174
4.6	Which inventions involve an inventive step?	175
4.6.1	Definition of inventive step	175
4.6.2	Problem-solution approach	175

4.6.3	The skilled person and common general knowledge	177
4.6.4	Considerations when asking whether the invention is obvious	177
4.6.5	Inventive step based on an unexpected advantage	177
4.6.6	Further indicators of inventive step	178
Chapter 5: The Application		179
5.1	Elements of the application	179
5.2	General and physical requirements of the application	179
5.2.1	Prohibited matter	179
5.2.2	Presentation of the application documents	179
5.3	Requirements relating to the request	179
5.3.1	Use of a specified form	179
5.3.2	Drawings not allowed	179
5.3.3	Petition for grant	179
5.3.4	Details of the applicant	180
5.3.5	Details of any representative	180
5.3.6	Designation of the inventor	180
5.3.7	Title of the invention	180
5.3.8	Priority claim	180
5.3.9	Indication of divisional status	181
5.3.10	Indication that application is a replacement application	181
5.3.11	Figure of the drawings to be published with the abstract	181
5.3.12	List of documents accompanying the request	181
5.3.13	Signature	181
5.3.14	Correction of the request	181
5.4	Requirements relating to the description	181
5.4.1	Need for a sufficient disclosure	181
5.4.2	Content of the description	182
5.4.3	Order of presentation of the content of the description	183
5.4.4	Description not to contain drawings	183
5.5	Requirements relating to the claims	183
5.5.1	Requirement for clarity, conciseness and support	183
5.5.2	Claims to define matter the applicant seeks to protect	183
5.5.3	Situations in which two-part form is required	183
5.5.4	Number and type of claims allowed	184
5.5.5	Numbering of the claims	184
5.5.6	Omnibus claims generally not allowed	184
5.5.7	References in claims to reference signs in figures	185
5.5.8	Unity of invention	185
5.5.9	Allowability of disclaimers	185
5.5.10	Functional features	185
5.5.11	Claims not to contain drawings	185
5.6	Requirements relating to the abstract	186
5.7	Requirements relating to the drawings	186
5.8	Requirements relating to any priority claim	187
5.8.1	Relevance of the Paris Convention	187
5.8.2	Who may make a claim to priority?	187
5.8.3	Length of priority period	188
5.8.4	Priority claim to be in respect of the same invention	188
5.8.5	What kind of application may be used as a basis for claiming priority?	189
5.8.6	Procedure for claiming priority – declaration	190
5.8.7	Procedure for claiming priority – certified copy	191
5.8.8	Procedure for claiming priority – translation	192
5.8.9	Can one application claim more than one priority?	193
5.8.10	Can one priority be claimed in more than one application?	193
5.8.11	Effect of priority right	193
5.8.12	Obligation to file copies of search results when claiming priority	194
5.9	Requirements relating to the designation of the inventor	194
5.10	Language requirements of the application	194

5.10.1	Acceptable languages of filing	194
5.10.2	Requirement for a translation.	195
5.10.3	Languages of filing under EPC1973	195
5.10.4	Languages accepted if filing at a national office	195
5.10.5	Language of a divisional application or a replacement application.	195
5.11	Requirements relating to biotechnological inventions.	196
5.11.1	Sequence listings	196
5.11.2	Deposit of biological material	196
5.12	Special requirements for divisional applications.	197
Chapter 6: Filing a European Patent Application		199
6.1	Who is entitled to file a European patent application?	199
6.2	Where may a European patent application be filed?	199
6.2.1	Where to file a regular European patent application	199
6.2.2	Where to file a divisional application.	199
6.2.3	Where to file a replacement application under Art. 61(1)(b).	200
6.2.4	Restrictions on the filing of European patent applications under national law	200
6.2.5	Procedure where the application is filed with a national office – time limit for forwarding to the EPO	200
6.3	Manner of filing the application.	201
6.3.1	Filing in writing by post or by hand	201
6.3.2	Filing by fax	201
6.3.3	Filing electronically.	201
6.3.4	Filing by other means	201
6.4	Filing a Divisional application	201
6.4.1	Up to what point in time can a divisional application be filed?	201
6.4.2	A divisional application may be filed in respect of any pending earlier European patent application.	202
6.4.3	On what kind of application can a divisional be based?	203
6.4.4	Who is entitled to file a divisional application?	203
6.5	Filing a replacement application.	204
6.6	Requirement to pay a filing fee, a search fee and claims fees.	204
6.6.1	Filing fee.	204
6.6.2	Reduction of the filing fee if using an official language of a contracting state	204
6.6.3	Search fee	206
6.6.4	Reduction of the filing fee and the search fee if the applicant is a micro- entity.	207
6.6.5	Claims fees	208
6.6.6	Fees for divisional applications	208
6.6.7	Fees for replacement applications	209
6.7	Designation of Contracting States	209
6.8	Extension of a European patent	210
6.9	Validation of a European patent.	211
6.10	Requirement to file copies of search results relating to a priority application	211
Chapter 7: Examination on Filing		212
7.1	Procedure on receipt of a new application	212
7.2	Examination as to whether a filing date can be accorded	212
7.2.1	Requirements for a filing date	212
7.2.2	Need for a certified copy of the previous application if filing by reference	213
7.2.3	Need for a translation of the previous application if filing by reference. ...	213
7.2.4	Procedure where a filing date cannot be accorded	213
7.2.5	Filing date in the case of a divisional application or replacement application	214

7.3	Filing date where pages of the application are subsequently filed	215
7.3.1	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings with redating of the application	215
7.3.2	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings without redating of the application – applications filed before 01 November 2022.	215
7.3.3	Adding missing parts of the description and missing drawings without redating of the application – applications filed on or after 01 November 2022.	217
7.3.4	Replacing erroneously filed application documents, or parts thereof, with or without redating – applications filed on or after 01 November 2022.	218
7.4	Procedure where a filing date can be accorded – examination of formal requirements.	220
7.4.1	Determination as to whether any necessary translation has been filed . .	220
7.4.2	Request, description, claims, drawings and abstract	220
7.4.3	Designation of the inventor	221
7.4.4	Priority claim	222
7.4.5	Representation and authorisation	222
7.4.6	Filing and search fees.	223
7.4.7	Claims fees	223
7.4.8	Sequence listings	224
7.4.9	Other matters.	224
Chapter 8: The Search Report and Opinion.		225
8.1	The EPO must draw up a search report for each European patent application	225
8.2	Procedure where a plurality of independent claims exist	225
8.3	Procedure where a meaningful search is not possible	225
8.4	Procedure where the application lacks unity	226
8.5	Establishing of the definitive content of the abstract.	227
8.6	Patent classification used by the EPO	227
8.7	Accelerated search	227
8.8	The European Search Report	228
8.8.1	Content of the search report.	228
8.8.2	Language of the search report	228
8.9	The extended European Search Report	228
8.10	Transmittal of the search report, search opinion and definitive content of the abstract.	229
8.11	Requirement to file a response to the extended European search report. .	229
8.12	One chance for submission of voluntary amendments in response to extended European search report.	230
Chapter 9: Publication of the Application and Search Report		231
9.1	Timing of publication	231
9.2	No publication to take place when the application is withdrawn or refused.	231
9.3	Language and form of the publication.	231
9.4	Contents of the publication	232
9.5	Matter excluded from the publication.	233
Chapter 10: Request for Examination, Designation Fee, Extension Fees and Validation Fees		234
10.1	Communication to the applicant of the date on which the Bulletin mentions the publication of the search report	234
10.2	Payment of the designation fee.	234
10.2.1	Designation fee for a regular application.	234
10.2.2	Reduction of the designation fee if the applicant is a micro-entity.	235

10.2.3	Designation fee for a divisional application	236
10.2.4	Designation fee for a replacement application	236
10.3	Payment of extension fees	236
10.4	Payment of validation fees	237
10.5	Request for examination	238
10.5.1	Examination must be requested	238
10.5.2	Time limit for requesting examination	238
10.5.3	Payment of an examination fee	238
10.5.4	Reduction of the examination fee if using an official language of a contracting state and/or if the applicant is a microentity	238
10.5.5	Consequences of not requesting examination	240
10.5.6	Refund of the examination fee	240
10.6	A request for examination filed before transmittal of the search report must usually be confirmed	242
10.7	Assumption of responsibility by the Examining Division	242
Chapter 11: Substantive Examination		243
11.1	Formal written procedure	243
11.2	Informal consultations by telephone, videoconference or e-mail	244
11.3	Procedure of the Examining Division in the case of an incomplete search	245
11.4	Further searches	246
11.5	Auxiliary requests	246
11.6	Double patenting	246
11.7	Accelerated procedure	247
11.8	Request for information concerning prior art	248
11.9	Refusal of the application	248
Chapter 12: Allowance and Grant		249
12.1	Circumstances in which a patent is granted	249
12.2	Approval of the text for grant, payment of fees and filing of claim translations	249
12.2.1	Communication from the Examining Division under r.71(3)	249
12.2.2	Reduction of the grant fee if the applicant is a micro-entity	250
12.2.3	Consequences of not responding fully to the r.71(3) communication ...	251
12.2.4	Implicit approval of the text by payment of fees and filing of translations	252
12.2.5	Procedure where the proposed text is not acceptable to the applicant ...	252
12.2.6	Refund of grant and publishing fee	252
12.3	Between approval of the text and a decision to grant	253
12.4	Decision to grant	253
12.5	The decision to grant takes effect on publication of the mention of grant in the Bulletin	254
12.6	No publication of the mention of grant until designation or renewal fees have been paid	254
12.7	Publication of the specification of the granted patent	254
12.8	Grant to different applicants	255
12.9	Issue of a certificate	255
12.10	Validation in contracting States	256
12.11	Registration of the granted patent	256
12.12	Validation in non-contracting States	256
Chapter 13: European Patent with Unitary Effect		257
13.1	Abbreviations	257
13.2	Status of the Unitary Patent Regulation in relation to the PC, PCT and EPC	257
13.3	New institutions	257
13.3.1	Select Committee of the Administrative Council	257

13.3.2	Unitary Patent Protection Division of the EPO	258
13.4	A Unitary Patent may only be granted for participating EU states in which the Unified Patent Court has jurisdiction	259
13.5	A unitary patent may only be granted for a European patent granted after the date of application of the Unitary Patent Regulation	260
13.6	A European Patent must have the same set of claims in all participating Member States to have unitary effect.	260
13.7	Filing a request for unitary effect.	260
13.7.1	Who can file a request for unitary effect?	260
13.7.2	Where should a request for unitary effect be filed?	260
13.7.3	What is the deadline for filing a request for unitary effect?	261
13.7.4	What language should the request for unitary effect be filed in?	261
13.7.5	Content and form of the request for unitary effect	261
13.7.6	Chance to correct formal deficiencies where content of request is incomplete	262
13.7.7	Decision on a request for unitary effect	262
13.7.8	Date the decision takes effect	262
13.7.9	Withdrawal of a request for unitary effect	262
13.7.10	Provision of a certificate for unitary effect	262
13.8	Provision of a translation when requesting unitary effect will only be required for a limited period.	262
13.9	Publication of the translation provided when requesting unitary effect .	263
13.10	Requirement to provide a translation of a unitary patent for enforcement	263
13.11	Protection conferred by a unitary patent – no double protection	264
13.12	Unitary patent as property – transfer and license.	265
13.13	Licenses of right may be offered for a unitary patent – reduced renewal fees.	265
13.14	Register for unitary patent protection and file inspection.	266
13.15	Compensation scheme for certain unitary patent proprietors if the patent was filed in an EU language other than English, French or German.	268
13.16	Renewal fees for a unitary patent.	270
13.16.1	Renewal fees for a unitary patent are to be paid to the EPO	270
13.16.2	Due date for renewal fees	270
13.16.3	Consequences of non-payment – grace period.	270
13.16.4	Payment of renewal fees falling due between grant and the registration of unitary effect or shortly after registration of unitary effect	271
