

1. Introduction	8
2. Literature Review	10
2.1 Historical Context: The Influence of Colonialism and Apartheid on Gangsterism	10
2.2 Spatial Segregation during Apartheid and its Influence on Communities.....	14
2.3 Apartheid's influence on Gangsterism in South Africa.....	17
2.4 Gangs in Cape Town today	20
2.4.1 Gangs and violence as a form of employment	23
2.5 Gangs in townships today – navigating spaces	25
2.5.1 Child Gangsters and Recruitment of Children	30
2.5.2 Child agency and gang involvement	32
3. Research and Methodology.....	36
3.1 Ethical Research with Children	38
3.2 Context of Research and Field Access	41
3.3 Limitations of Research.....	42
3.4 Research Questions	42
3.5 Programs that target gang violence	43
3.5.1 First Community Resource Centre.....	44
3.5.2 Camp Joy	45
3.5.3 Join Bands not Gangs.....	45
3.6 Research Methods	47
3.6.1 Sampling and Interviews.....	47
3.6.2 Data Analysis	49

4. Results.....	50
4.1 Category 1: Environment Perception	50
Subcategory 1: Perception of Community	51
Subcategory 2: Experiences of Violence	52
Subcategory 3: Coping Mechanisms in Response to Environment	52
4.2 Category 2: Gang Involvement and Disengagement	53
Subcategory 1: Joining or Avoiding Gangs for Protection	53
Subcategory 2: Turning to Gangs for Status and Identity	54
5. Summary of Findings.....	55
6. Discussion	58
6.1 Disengaging with Gangs through Positive Interpersonal Connections and Nurturing Relationships	58
6.2 The in-betweeners: Moving in and out of gangs	59
7. Conclusion	59
Bibliography.....	63