

Table of contents

Introduction	13
Themes and objectives of the research	13
The path, method and techniques	15
 Chapter 1 The institutional, historical and cultural dimensions of the social worker	19
1.1 Historical background	19
1.2 The new coming of age	21
 Chapter 2 The dynamic analysis of the profession of social workers	25
2.1 Macro approach	25
2.2 Micro approach	27
2.3 Interactionism	31
 Chapter 3 The daily work of the social worker	35
3.1 Working between relationship and articulation	37
3.2 Situated activity to practical knowledge	44
3.3 Work practices	46
 Chapter 4 Body-mediated knowledge	51
4.1 Body and practical knowledge	51
4.2 Tacit knowledge	54
4.3 Bodies at work	56
 Chapter 5 The discursive practice of the social worker	59
5.1 Communicative competence	59
5.2 Mimetic conversations	65

5.3 Understanding words 67

5.4 Using words in writing 71

5.5 Narrative 73

Chapter 6 Social workers and the reception of refugees/asylum seekers: Institutional coordination and cooperation .. 77

6.1 National reception policy framework 77

6.2 SWOT Analysis 79

6.3 Attention to cooperation 86

6.4 Communication between parties 88

Considerations 91

Bibliography 95