Contents

Preface —— V
List of Figures —— IX
List of Tables —— XI

Giuseppina di Bartolo and Daniel Kölligan
Problems and Perspectives of Postclassical Greek —— 1

Part I: Periodization and Greek Diachrony

Brian D. Joseph
How 'Post' is Postclassical? Lessons from the Augment throughout the History of Greek —— 13

Part II: Greek Dialects and Postclassical Greek

Georgios K. Giannakis
Dialect Convergence and Linguistic Change: The Dodona Tablets Corpus and its Significance for the Study of the History of the Greek Language —— 29

Part III: Homer and Hellenistic Greek

Albio Cesare Cassio
'Late' Linguistic Innovations and Elimination of Hiatus in the Homeric Text —— 65

Daniel Kölligan
Notes on aemulatio in Hellenistic Epic: Apollonius of Rhodes and the Homeric Language —— 77

Part IV: Language Standardization

Chiara Monaco
Atticist Views on Linguistic Variation: The Case of Phrynichus' Eclogue and its Use of Ancient Sources —— 103

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1318228271

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Geoffrey Horrocks
In the Mood? – Some Thoughts on the Use of the Optative in Postclassical Literary Greek — 135

Part V: Historical Semantics

Enrico Cerroni
Postclassical 'shame': ἐντρέπομαι and ἐντροπή — 157

Part VI: Morphosyntax and Biblical Greek

Chiara Gianollo
Negative Concord and Word Order in the Greek Bible and New Testament — 187

Felicia Logozzo and Liana Tronci
Multiverb Constructions in Postclassical Greek: Pseudo-coordination and Participial Constructions in the Apophthegmata Patrum — 225

Part VII: The Syntax-Pragmatics Interface

Giuseppina di Bartolo
Double Conjunction Usages in Postclassical Greek — 271

Staffan Wahlgren
Word Order in Byzantine Literary Greek — 293

List of Contributors — 309
Index Rerum — 311
Index Verborum — 313
Index Locorum — 315