

Table of Contents

Necia Chronister, Sonja E. Klocke, and Lars Richter

Introduction — 1

Part I: Into the Juliverse

Stephen Brockmann

Juli Zeh as Chronicler of the German Present — 27

Kevin Drews

The “Age of the Chronicler”? Literary Contemporary History in Juli Zeh’s Novels Unterleuten, Über Menschen, and Zwischen Welten — 49

Lars Richter

Across the Juliverse: Blurring Textual Boundaries in the Work of Juli Zeh — 75

Part II: Society in/and/of Nature

Melissa Sheedy

“The Between Is Her Realm”: Rebel Witches and Disorderly Nature in Juli Zeh’s Corpus Delicti — 95

Necia Chronister

Juli Zeh’s Landscapes of the Capitalocene — 113

Shreya Gaikwad

Human-Animal Conflict for Habitat in Juli Zeh’s Unterleuten — 133

Part III: Privacy, Power, and the Law

Kylie Giblett

“The Law Was a Room Justice Never Entered”: Justice, Legal Philosophy, and Law’s Foundational Violence in the Works of Juli Zeh — 151

VIII — Table of Contents

Sonja E. Klocke

Revisiting Corpus Delicti: The Author/Lawyer and the Covid-19 Pandemic — 171

Robert Lemon

The Prickly Character of Juli Zeh's Der Kaktus on Campus — 191

Part IV: The Fault Lines of Community

Thomas B. Fuhr

A People's Intellectual: Juli Zeh and the Heimat Movement — 215

Brian Tucker

Juli Zeh and the Ethics of Care — 235

Selected Bibliography — 255

Notes on Contributors — 265

Editors — 265

Contributors — 265

Index — 269