

Contents

Introduction: Political Economy beyond Globalism: States, War, and Capitalist Democracy	ix
Part I: The Demise of Centralism	1
1. Global Politics and Regional Planning	3
The Neoliberal Interlude	9
A Critical Moment	14
2. The Demise of the New World Order	18
Globalisation and Hyperglobalisation	21
A New European Order: The European Union	28
Forever Unfinished	30
3. Stuck: Between Globalism and Democracy	41
What Next? A Tug of War	43
Left Globalism	45
Culture versus Unculture	47
Democracy as a De-proletarianised Value System	50
4. Breaking the Deadlock: Democracy and the Politics of Scale	56
Economic Crisis and State Systems	57
Megalomania?	62
Decomposing Complexity	67

Part II: After Three Decades	71
5. A Dual Crisis I: Capitalism	73
Stagnation	75
The Neoliberal Crisis Sequence	90
The Central Bank State as the Last Stage of Neoliberalism	96
Keynes from the Ashes?	98
Debt without Remorse?	101
The Emergency State	108
Clueless	111
The Great Uncertainty	114
Capitalism and Nothing Else	116
6. A Dual Crisis II: Democracy	122
States between Democracy and Globalism	123
Globalism against Democracy	128
Democracy against Globalism	134
Post-globalist Democracy?	136
Part III: States and State Systems	139
7. Integration and Differentiation	141
Gibbon: Unity or Diversity?	141
The Contemporary State System: A Survey	148
Metamorphoses of the Nation-State	156
Statehood and the Constitutive Particularism of Human Socialisation	164
Excursus I: Scotland and Catalonia	168
Excursus II: Germany in Comparison	172
'Taking Back Control'	178
Confederation or Empire?	181
The Dimensions of States and State Systems	186
8. The European Union: From Neoliberal to Geopolitical Integration	189
Europe as Battleground and Place of Desire	192
Before Ukraine: Critical Fault-Lines, Impending Failure	198
More Unity through Less Unity?	201
Integration by Militarisation?	204
After Ukraine	208

Liabilities Old and New	212
Beyond Superstate and Empire	214
Learning from Europe	217
Part IV: Beyond Globalist Centralisation	221
9. Mega-statism and Its Limitations	223
The Contradictions and Limits of Neoliberal Globalisation:
Eight Theses	225
Globalisation beyond the State	229
Global Market Economy and National Democracy	236
Unity from Above: Global Governance	246
Global Governance as Technocratic Utopia	253
Another Plan A	258
Global Governance as Liberal Empire	268
COVID: The Long-Hidden Costs of Globalisation	275
COVID and the Fiscal Crisis of the State: A Conjecture	281
10. Small-Statism and Its Possibilities	286
Simon: Decomposing Complexity	289
Keynes: National Self-Sufficiency	295
Deglobalisation and Alternative Development	302
Global Polycentrism	307
Disentanglement: COVID and the Supply Chains	320
The Keynes-Polanyi State: National, Sovereign, Democratic	324
Better Smaller	329
‘Economic Patriotism’: Globalism and Back	335
Big Crisis, Small States	343
The Question of Money	352
Democratic Particularism and Global Collective Goods	355
Cooperative, Not Imperial: A Prospect of a New International Order	362
Coda: Inventory of Propositions	375
Index	383