

Foreword

Siegfried Mauser	7
------------------------	---

Setting Art into Motion and Motivating Musicians' Movement

Adina Mornell	9
---------------------	---

Principles of Practice for the Development of Skilled Actions: Implications for Training and Instruction in Music

Richard A. Schmidt and Timothy D. Lee	17
---	----

In Search of a Movement Science for Musicians

Klaus Schneider	53
-----------------------	----

Practicing with Both Brain Hemispheres

Jürgen Beckmann, Peter Gröpel, Felix Ehrlenspiel	63
--	----

Kinds of Knowledges in Brains

Josef Ilmberger	75
-----------------------	----

The Role of Cognitive Style in the Activity of Musician Performers

Michał Zagrodzki	89
------------------------	----

Acquisition and Loss of Skilled Movements in Musicians as a Paradigm for Adaptive and Maladaptive Brain Plasticity

Eckart Altenmüller	105
--------------------------	-----

What Movement Force Reveals about Cognitive Processes in Music Performance

Peter E. Keller	115
-----------------------	-----

Mind, Movement and Motor Skills: Studies of Expertise in Dance

Bettina Bläsing	155
-----------------------	-----

The Path to Efficiency in Music Making: Contrasting
Students with Mentors

- Frank Heuser 181

Adaptive and Reactive Sensor Technology for Musical Instruments: Teaching, Exercising and Pedagogy

- Tobias Großhauser, Ulf Großekathöfer,
Thomas Hermann 195

Using Self-Regulation to Unlock Musical Success

- Gary McPherson 225

Operant Conditioning as Motivational Strategy. On Training
Musicians, Athletes, and Scientists – and How We Taught
Our Dogs to Sit

- Rachel Rudich and Marianne de Laet 241

Contributors 271