

Contents

Acknowledgements	iii
Note on Transliteration and Stylistic Conventions	v
Notes on Contributors	vii

Editor's Preface: What Has Been Done?	1
LUDMILA PITERS-HOFMANN

ART PRACTICE

Ivan Kramskoi's Unknown Woman and the Embarrassment of Modernity	7
TRENTON OLSEN
Interwoven Identities: Church Slavonic in Folklore-Based Late-Imperial Russian Art	19
LUDMILA PITERS-HOFMANN
Iconic Revolution: The Asceticism of Old-Style Icons and the Avant-Garde	39
TATIANA LEVINA

THEORY

Before and Beyond the Avant-Garde: The Forgotten Art Histories of Nikolai Punin and Nikolai Tarabukin	57
MARIA TAROUTINA
"A Shift in Art's Center of Gravity... from West to East"? Kandinsky's Essay "Abstract Art" (1925) and the "Slavic Principle"	73
SEBASTIAN BORKHARDT
Discussing Modernism: How the Moscow Union of Artists Questioned its Art Theory	91
VERA OTDELNOVA

PROMOTION

Make Academic Art Great Again: Exhibitions of the Society of Art Exhibitions in the St. Petersburg Press from 1876 to 1883	111
---	------------

MARAT ISMAGILOV

Between Enmity and Patronage: Sergei Diaghilev, Vladimir Stasov, and the Promotion of Neo-national Art and Design	129
--	------------

LOUISE A. HARDIMAN

From the Marxist Display to Sots Art: Museum Exhibitions of Soviet-Era Art and the East-West Divide	151
--	------------

RAHMA KHAZAM

EPILOGUE

A Critical Juncture	165
----------------------------	------------

PAVEL OTDELNOV

Abstracts	173
------------------	------------

List of Illustrations	179
------------------------------	------------

Index	183
--------------	------------