

Contents

List of Abbreviations	7
Introduction	9
Mathijs Lamberigts
“Omnes esse beati volunt” (Confessiones 10,23,33). Augustine on Happiness ..	11
Andreas J. Beck
Longing for God: Gisbertus Voetius on Happiness and Wellbeing	35
Jan Červenka
Wellbeing in Bohemian Dialogues of the Sixteenth Century	47
Didier Course
A Case for Casuistry: Adornment and Devotion at Court in Seventeenth Century France.....	73
Gioia Filocamo
Music for Dissections: Exploring Opera Feelings	99
Donatella Melini
The Sound of Happiness Life in the Renaissance Musical Iconography	113
Dávid Molnár
Apotheosis Voluptatis: Marsilio Ficino on Wellbeing	121
Marta Quatrone
Philipp Melanchthon’s Ethic: Wellbeing as Result of a Gnoseological Argumentative Shift?	133
Balázs Rigó
Human Needs in Early Modern Theory of the State – The Pyramid of the Legitimacy of the Power	163

Francesco Rocco Rossi

Music as a Source of Wellbeing in Milan during the Visconti and Sforza Periods 199

Catrien Santing

Advice on How to Live a Good Life in Fifteenth-Century Dutch
Miscellaneous Manuscripts 205

Brigitta Schv  d

“These are Great and Noble Occasions for a Good Cristian’s Joy”.
Discourse on Peace and Balance of Power in the Political Sermons of John Adams (1662–1720) 225

Anna Szyrwi  ska-H  rig

The Concept of Renewal in Early Modern Protestant Movements as a Way to Spiritual Wellbeing..... 257

Image Credits..... 269

Index of Names 273

Index of Subjects 277

Notes on Contributors..... 285