

- 1___ Anchor Exchange
Cold War era tunnel system | 10
- 2___ The Angry Wall
A towering wall of mysterious cylinders | 12
- 3___ Apple Tree
How do you like them apples? | 14
- 4___ The Archery
World's oldest lawn tennis club | 16
- 5___ Argent Centre
Multi-coloured Romanesque | 18
- 6___ Ashley Building
A Brutalist Tower of Babel | 20
- 7___ Asian Fashion Mile
Bridal boutiques and textile bazaars from the East | 22
- 8___ Austin Village
A clue in kit form to a country at war | 24
- 9___ Bacchus Bar
Portal to a time-travelling fantasia | 26
- 10___ Back to Backs Museum
Throw them up, pack them in | 28
- 11___ Bell Edison Building
Victorian hi-tech communication | 30
- 12___ Birmingham Bike Foundry
Recycling since 2010 | 32
- 13___ Birmingham Board Schools
Beacons of the future | 34
- 14___ Birmingham Opera Company
Nomadic urban explorers | 36
- 15___ Bishop Asbury Cottage
The best known Black Country museum in America | 38
- 16___ Black Sabbath Bench
Relax with the local heroes of heavy metal | 40
- 17___ Bournville Carillon
Mechanical bells played by keyboard | 42
- 18___ The Bull
A country pub in the Gun Quarter | 44

- 19___ Bullring Indoor Market
Large-scale fish retail | 46
- 20___ Bullring Meteorite
A fallen star of heavy metal | 48
- 21___ Calthorpe Estate
Birmingham's garden suburb | 50
- 22___ Cardinal Newman Museum
'The people of Birmingham have souls too' | 52
- 23___ Castle Bromwich Gardens
Striking 18th-century formal garden | 54
- 24___ Catacombs
Ancient solution to overcrowded churchyards | 56
- 25___ Chinese Pagoda
Landmark gateway to the Chinese Quarter | 58
- 26___ City Farm
A rustic sliver in an urban setting | 60
- 27___ Coffin Works
Coffin fittings for the UK's top brass | 62
- 28___ Coleshill Pillory
Reminder of the ruthless days of public punishment | 64
- 29___ Colley Ison Gallery
Contemporary art at the city's heart | 66
- 30___ The Conservatoire
An urban castle of concerts | 68
- 31___ Cornwall Street
Unique Metropolitan Arts and Crafts townhouses | 70
- 32___ Dayus Square
Home of The Girl from Hockley | 72
- 33___ Dhamma Talaka Pagoda
The Reservoir of Truth in the heart of Ladywood | 74
- 34___ Duddeston Viaduct
The folly of early railway rivalry | 76
- 35___ Duran Duran House
Deco lodge was pop group's early practice room | 78
- 36___ Eagle Insurance Building
The 20th century starts here | 80
- 37___ Edgbaston Reservoir
Birmingham-on-Sea | 82
- 38___ Edith Holden Country
Nature walks of an Edwardian lady | 84

- 39___ Elan Valley Model
Tribute to Birmingham's drinking water source | 86
- 40___ The Emergence of Women
Side-lined tapestry chronicles women's history | 88
- 41___ The Face of the Moon
John Russell's lunar landscape in pastel | 90
- 42___ Fellows, Morton & Clayton
Ark-shaped HQ for the mighty canal carriers | 92
- 43___ Fertility Seats
Public benches allow a pregnant pause | 94
- 44___ Findings Trail
Lost and found moments from past and present | 96
- 45___ Foka Wolf
Rising star of savage street art | 98
- 46___ Galton Bridge
Mighty ironwork spans a man-made valley | 100
- 47___ Grand Union Gallery
Cutting edge art at the old blade works | 102
- 48___ Grazebrook Engine
Muscular powerhouse from the Steam Age | 104
- 49___ Great Stone Inn
How many stones in a pound? | 106
- 50___ Handsworth Old Town Hall
The Town Hall that was never a Town Hall | 108
- 51___ Harborne Walkway
Railway line that became a park | 110
- 52___ Hay Hall
Elizabethan hall marooned in industrial estate | 112
- 53___ H B Sale
Birmingham's flatiron building | 114
- 54___ Highgate Windmill
Walsall's old-world industrial remnant | 116
- 55___ Hockley Flyover Murals
What a relief! | 118
- 56___ The Holdout Building
Sometimes less is more | 120
- 57___ Industry and Genius
Tribute to an influential typographer | 122
- 58___ John Hall-Edwards Plaque
Remembering an X-Ray pioneer | 124

- 59___ Kardomah Café
Home of Birmingham Surrealism | 126
- 60___ The Kennedy Memorial
Celebrating an Irish Quarter idol | 128
- 61___ Kilder
Underneath the arches | 130
- 62___ Kingsbury Water Park
A day out to Birmingham's Lake District | 132
- 63___ Lapworth Geology Museum
Let's rock | 134
- 64___ Last Public Hanging
Grisly memorial in a grim setting | 136
- 65___ Legend of St Kenelm
Celtic tradition lives on beyond the churchyard | 138
- 66___ The Lock-Up
Steelhouse Lane's historic mini prison | 140
- 67___ Lucifer
'Better to reign in Hell than serve in Heaven' | 142
- 68___ Mary Vale Road ABC Houses
A gazetteer of Victorian destinations | 144
- 69___ Medicine Bakery & Gallery
Artisan bakery, café and gallery | 146
- 70___ Metchley Fort
What have the Romans ever done for Birmingham? | 148
- 71___ Midland Bank Demon
Stone-faced satire of Victorian fat cats | 150
- 72___ Moor Pool Estate
The secret garden suburb | 152
- 73___ Moseley Dovecote
18th-century tower in a peaceful setting | 154
- 74___ Moseley Road Baths
Victorian pools swimming against the current | 156
- 75___ Mothers
Listen with Mothers | 158
- 76___ Museum Collection Centre
An epic collection of collections | 160
- 77___ Netherton Tunnel
Canalside walk for cavers | 162
- 78___ New Hall Water Mill
Grist for the mill | 164

- 79____ New Street Signal Box
Zigzagging concrete defies the bulldozers | 166
- 80____ New St Station Cladding
This reflects badly on Birmingham | 168
- 81____ Oak House
A 17th-century wealthy yeoman farmer's house | 170
- 82____ Old Joe
AKA The Joseph Chamberlain Memorial Clock Tower | 172
- 83____ Orange Chips
Black Country gold | 174
- 84____ Outside-In
Ikon Gallery's spy glass | 176
- 85____ Perrott's Folly
Inscrutable tower from the 18th century | 178
- 86____ Piccadilly Arcade
Elegant arcade hides a secret | 180
- 87____ Pillbox
Stirchley's lost bunker | 182
- 88____ Prefabs
Long live temporary housing! | 184
- 89____ Provide
Unapologetically Brummie design | 186
- 90____ Ristorante Caffè Gustami
Authentic Italian cuisine in a humble setting | 188
- 91____ The Roundhouse
Horseshoe-shaped corporation stables | 190
- 92____ Rowley Hills
Overlooked viewpoint in reclaimed quarry | 192
- 93____ Rowton House
Affordable city living for Victorian workers | 194
- 94____ St Basil's Church
An Italian touch in deepest Digbeth | 196
- 95____ St Thomas' Garden
War and Peace between the ring roads | 198
- 96____ Shard End Griffins
Six stone sentinels keep guard in Shard End | 200
- 97____ Shri Venkateswara Temple
Beautiful Hindu temple complex | 202
- 98____ Snow Hill Mosaic
Clues to Sherlock Holmes' Birmingham connection | 204

- 99___ Spaghetti Junction
It's complicated | 206
- 100___ Stratford House
Ambrose and Bridget Rotton's farmstead | 208
- 101___ Strathallan Hotel
Motel shows Birmingham's enduring passion for cars | 210
- 102___ Sutton Coldfield Odeon
Art Deco popcorn palace | 212
- 103___ Sutton Park
Urban moorland over the horizon | 214
- 104___ Taste of Pakistan
The UK's first Truck Art restaurant | 216
- 105___ Thornton Road Poltergeist
Noisy spirits in a quiet suburb | 218
- 106___ Tilt
City arcade games | 220
- 107___ Tony Hancock Memorial
Remembering the lugubrious legend | 222
- 108___ Viceroy Close Demons
The Temptation of St. Anthony sculptures | 224
- 109___ Webster & Horsfall Museum
Totally wired for three centuries | 226
- 110___ Weoley Castle
Ruined remains of a mediaeval castle | 228
- 111___ Wren's Nest
Home of the Dudley Bug | 230