

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	7
Acknowledgments	9
List of First Publications	11
Introduction: Liberalism, Citizenship, and Constitutionalism: The historical work of Dieter Gosewinkel	15
Part I: Individual Leadership and Liberal Contestations	29
Chapter 1. An Intellectual in the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD): Adolf Arndt (1904–1974)	31
Chapter 2. Political Punishment at the Limits of the Judicial State: The History of the National Socialist Judiciary in the German Judiciary Act of 1961	53
Chapter 3. Historicity of Law – Law in History: On the Work of Ernst-Wolfgang Böckenförde (1930–2019)	65
Part II: Economic Order, Property Rights, and Expropriation: Between Dictatorship and Democracy	75
Chapter 4. Between Dictatorship and Democracy: Economic Planning in Germany and France from the First World War to the Mid-1970s	77
Chapter 5. The Development of Property Rights and Citizenship in Germany during the 19th and 20th Centuries	117
Chapter 6. Citizenship and Property Seizure in Czechoslovakia after 1918 and 1945	139

Table of Contents

Part III: Nationality and Citizenship	157
Chapter 7. "Citizenship" as an Interdisciplinary Field of Historical Research	159
Chapter 8. Naturalizing and Excluding: Nationality and Citizenship law in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Germany	207
Chapter 9. The Limits of Universalism: Citizenship in the History of Europe in the 20th and 21st Centuries	229
Part IV: Rule of Law and Constitutional History	247
Chapter 10. The Scope of Morality: Racial Law in German Colonialism	249
Chapter 11. Constitution without Historiography: On Writing the History of the Basic Law	269
Chapter 12. The Constitutional State	287