

Yohanan Petrovsky-Shtern, Vladimir (Ze'ev) Khanin

Introduction — 1

Russian-speaking Jewry: Community and Identity

Vladimir (Ze'ev) Khanin

Being Jewish in the Post-Soviet Capital: Ethnicity, Religion, and Culture — 25

Ilya Barkusky

Kaliningrad or Königsberg? — 49

Vladimir (Ze'ev) Khanin and Haim Ben Yaakov

“Lost Brothers” and “Involved Sympathizers”: Searching for Jewish Roots and Community Activism in the Post-Soviet Space — 71

Mikhail Gold (Kyiv)

Jewish Periodicals in the Post-Soviet Realm: 30 Years Later — 97

Tradition and Modernity in the FSU: Jewish Religiosity and Religious Practice

Dzmitry Shavaliou

Jewish Religious Revival in Belarus and its Outcome — 117

Maria Makarova

Birobidzhan Nostalgia: The Quest for Transboundary Emotional and Textual Community — 133

Elena Nosenko-Stein

Reform Judaism in Russia: Specific Features and Issues — 153

Maria Kaspina

Traditional Judaism Through the Eyes of Secular and Atheist Post-Soviet Jews — 177

The Jewish Culture and Dilemmas of a Jewish Future in Post-Soviet Eurasia

Viktor Damian

Three Decades of Formal Jewish Education and Research in Post-Soviet Moldova: Structure, Political Challenges, and Identity Debates — 195

Velvl Chernin

From Soviet to Russian-Jewish Literature: Four Prose Writers — 219

Yohanan Petrovsky-Shtern

Smell of a Hallah: Jews and Jewish Civilization in Vasyl Makhno — 241

Sergey R. Kravtsov

The Space of Synagogues in Lviv: History and Challenges — 265

Antisemitism, Tolerance, and Memory in the Post-Soviet Space

Lev Gudkov

Antisemitism and Xenophobia in Modern Russia According to the Levada Center 2020 Study — 281

Igor Shchupak

The Rescuers of the Jews in the Holocaust: Politics of Memory and Education in Modern-Day Ukraine — 317

Boris Morozov

Jews and the Diplomacy of Historical Memory: Disclosing the Israeli-Soviet documents (1954–1967) — 349

Contributors — 365

Index — 369