

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	xi
Chapter 1. The Making of a Bohemian (1909–1918)	1
Introduction	1
La viuda blanca y negra (1917).....	18
Notes.....	26
Chapter 2. The Banquet Years I (1919–1923)	29
The Decline of Scientific Rationalism: El doctor inverosímil	35
Experimenting with Surrealism: El incongruente	40
‘Living matter’ and the Transcendence of Things: El secreto del Acueducto (1922–23)	47
The Poetics of Modernity: Cinelandia (1923).....	54
Subverting the Crime Novel: El Chalet de las Rosas	60
The Bourgeois Don Juan and the Novel of Diminished Horizons: El Gran Hotel (1922–23)	66
Bucolic Retreat and the Lyrical Novel: La Quinta de Palmyra (1923)..	71
Notes.....	82
Chapter 3. The Art of Un-Making Novels: El novelista (1923).....	89
Fragments and Vignettes: A Brief Overview of Ramón Gómez de la Serna’s most Significant Short Stories.	101
Notes.....	120
Chapter 4. The Banquet Years II (1924–1929).	125
Parody and Influence in La mujer de ámbar (1927).....	125
Parody, the Picaresque and the Modern-day Man of Commerce: El caballero del hongo gris (1928).	136
Notes.....	142
Chapter 5. Towards a Modernist Aesthetics (1930–1936).....	145
Notes.....	158
Chapter 6. The 1940s and Beyond	159
Nietzsche, Existentialism and El hombre perdido (1947).....	161
A Brief Consideration of Piso bajo (1961).....	171
Notes.....	175
Chapter 7. The Poetics of Abstraction	177
Notes.....	184
Bibliography.....	185
Primary Sources.....	185
Secondary Sources.....	187