

Contents

Miguel Rivas Venegas and Martina L. Weisz
Marginality and the Power to Resist — 1

Berit Callsen
Chapter 1
Liquid Narratives of the “Other” – Aquatic Agency in Recent Chilean Documentary Film — 9

Begonya Enguix Grau
Chapter 2
Men in Nations: Overlapping Bodies and Masculinities — 29

Ludmila Da Silva Catela
Chapter 3
The Restitution of “Disappeared” Bodies: Restoring Identities and Breaking the Curse of Dehumanization — 57

Cristina García Pascual
Chapter 4
Memory, Shame and Guilt of the Perpetrators — 79

Rían Lozano
Chapter 5
Imagining the Scraps of History: Two Projects by the Art Collective O.R.G.I.A — 101

Samira Spatzek
Chapter 6
Antebellum Racial Nostalgia, Wedding Culture, and US-American Fashion Journalism: Reading Kate Chopin’s Fiction in Vogue — 123

Sebastiaan Faber
Chapter 7
Professional Historians vs. Memory from the Margins: Authority, Activism, and Academics in Spain, the Netherlands, and the United States — 145

VI — Contents

Lindsey Drury

Chapter 8

Memory, Ceremony, Sacrifice: Gene Weltfish, the Pawnee Nation, and the Settler State — 169

Miguel Rivas Venegas

Chapter 9

The Other as Cultural Mahnung. On Difference and National “Safe Space” in Franco’s Spain — 199

José Sergio Leite Lopes

Chapter 10

Memory, Social Conflict, and the Transformation of Social Reproduction in the Working Classes: From Generic Identity to New Identities — 227

Martina L. Weisz

Chapter 11

Opting for the Rich: Church, Dictatorship and Class Struggle in the Argentinean Province of Jujuy — 259

The Contributors — 279

Index — 283