

Table of Contents

Introduction	13
Chapter 1	17
The Marital Family	17
The Family in Society: Historical Patterns and Modern Trends	18
The Modern Family and Character Formation	23
Concluding Reflections	31
Chapter 2	33
Religion and the Church	33
Religion as a Differentiated Sphere in Late Modern Societies . .	35
Critical Perspectives on the Project	39
Justice, Mercy, and Faith in Pluralist Context	42
Chapter 3	45
Politics and the State	45
Political Forms and Moral Formation	45
Modern Politics in Interdisciplinary Perspective	47
Chapter 4	53
Law and Justice	53
Chapter 5	65
Health Care	65
Costs versus Care	66
Hard Ethical Decisions and Trade-offs in Health Care	69
The Challenges of Nursing	71
Health Care in Interdisciplinary Perspective	72
Concluding Reflections	73
Chapter 6	75
Academic Research	75
Ethics and Research Universities	75
Character and Ethics at the Intersection of Disciplines	80
Conclusions	85

Chapter 7 87

 Education and Schools 87

 Religious and Psychological Resources for Education 88

 Education and Character Development in Comparative Perspective 91

 Old and New Challenges in Education 93

Chapter 8 95

 The Market and Economics 95

 Markets Are Essential Institutions 95

 Do Markets Encourage Moral Character Formation? 97

 Are Markets Amoral? 99

 Do Markets Harm Moral Character Formation? 101

 Concluding Reflections 104

Chapter 9 107

 Media and Communication 107

Chapter 10 115

 The Military and Character Formation 115

 Character Formation and Soldierly Virtues 117

 The Miles Protector 117

Innere Führung 118

 The Reciprocal Influence of Military Virtues and Societal Values 119

 The Price of Serving: The Effects of Military Service and Challenges of Reintegration 120

 Psychological and Moral Injuries 121

 Reintegration Challenges for Veterans and their Families 121

 Public Perception 122

 Acknowledgment and Support 123

 The Role of the Church in Military Ethics and Peacebuilding .. 124

 Spiritual Care 125

 Christian Advocacy 125

 Concluding Reflections 126

Concluding Reflections: Enduring Issues, New Challenges 129

 The Family 130

 Religion 131

 Politics 133

 Law 134

 Health Care 135

Academic Research	137
Education	139
The Market	140
Media	141
The Military	143