

Contents

Part I ix

---

Editorial Foreword .....	xi
Acknowledgments .....	xix

Gorodomlya Island. German Rocket Scientists in Russia .....	1
Ostashkov, Mailbox No. 1. Or: My motivation for writing my memoir. ....	1
Earthshaking news .....	5
The transfer to the Soviet Occupation Zone .....	8
Start-up in Bleicherode .....	16
First projects: Rockets not just for mail service but also for military purposes ..	24
The great trek East .....	33
Gorodomlya-Moscow-Gorodomlya .....	42
“Please, build us a good rocket” .....	51
How much heat develops on the rocket skin during flight? .....	61
Everything according to plan, everything under control .....	67
Experiments on Gorodomlya – First test launches in Kazakhstan .....	76
Island tennis champion –Recreation on Gorodomlya .....	86
Rocket design: From the early drafts before Gorodomlya to the ultra large Sputnik carrier rockets .....	97
Theater and literature .....	106
Episodes of life on the island: cheerful, serious, at times sad and depressing ..	115
Home again. Or: Reflections on war and peace .....	134
Biographical information on Werner Albring .....	146

vii

---

Preface .....	v
Archival Findings on the Activities of the German Rocket Specialists on Gorodomlya Island from 1946-1953 .....	1
Introduction .....	1
An overview of the German rocket scientists' activities on Gorodomlya from 1946-1953 .....	3
Summary of Irina P. Suslina's research findings on the German rocket scientists' major achievements on Gorodomlya .....	12
Summary .....	30
Conclusions .....	31
References .....	35
Appendices .....	37
Appendix A: Detailed information regarding Suslina's research findings, which Suslina supplemented with references to Chertok's memoir and other sources. ....	37
Appendix B: Excerpts from Helmut Gröttrup's report to the CIA in 1954. ....	49
Appendix C: Matthias Uhl's statements on the effect of German rocket specialists' activities in the USSR. ....	55
Appendix D: Letter from Ustinov on the employment of German rocket specialists in the NII-88 [Scientific-Research-Institute No. 88] of the Ministry for Armaments – 12 October 1951 .....	56
Appendix E: Designations of long-range ballistic missiles as they occur in this volume .....	60